Commission Kills Proposal To Form New City Of Alto

Local Formation Group Votes Unanimously To Reject Plan

By FRANK FARRARA

The proposed City of Alto was nipped in the bud last night by the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission.

Commissioners unanimously rejected the petition for incorporation after a three-and-one-half hour public hearing before more than 100 persons at the Civic Center.

The commission not only heard pros and cons of incorporation, but also a proposal that the area be annexed to Tiburon.

Six hundred and nineteen residents had petitioned for an incorporation election, and judging by the volume of applause, the majority of those at the hearing favored incorporation.

Commissioners held the proposal did not meet the criteria for incorporation and was lacking in information about economic feasility of the move.

The proposed city would cover 1,626 acres bounded by Tiburon Corte Madera and Mill Valley, including a commercial strip west of Highway 101 which the commission previously approved for annexation to Mill Valley.

Although Mill Valley is proceeding toward annexation of this strip, there were no spokesmen for that city at the hearing.

Before the vote, Commissioner Byron W. Leydecker, county supervisor, said no "substantive information to advance the cause" of incorporation had been presented.

Leydecker also said he felt the commission "cast the die" for the future of the area when it approved annexation of the Alto area west of Highway 101 to Mill Valley.

Commission chairman Bert W. Broemmel, county assessor, stressed that the commission must consider economic feasibility of proposals.

Space Twins Orbit Three Times, Move Capsule, Change Its Course

Pair Is Picked Up After Safe Landing

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)—Virgil I. Grissom and John W. Young orbited the earth three times today and came down safely after performing historic space maneuvers looking toward man's conquest of the moon.

The orbiting "twins," flying America's first two-man spacecraft, rose into the sky aboard their Gemini 3 at 9:24 a.m. EST. They splashed down in the waters of the British West Indies at 2:18 p.m.

By 3:08 p.m. the astronauts and their spacecraft had been picked from the sea and were en route by helicopter to their recovery ship.

The descent was about 58 miles from the chief recovery ship, the aircraft carrier Intrepid. The Coast Guard cutter Diligence was only about seven miles away.

Air rescue helicopters dropped pararescue swimmers to attach a "flotation collar" to the spacecraft to keep it afloat until it could be recovered. The helicopters reported by radio that Gemini 3 was "floating very nicely" inside its collar.

The astronauts reported to aircraft in the recovery area that they were in good condition.

The Grissom - Young mission was a pioneering demonstration of orbit shifting techniques which will be used by U.S. space pilots who fly to the moon late in this decade.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) officially pronounced Gemini 3's unprecedented orbital maneuvers "truly historic." Grissom changed the shape and altitude of his craft's flight path three times while it was speeding at 17,500 miles an hour.

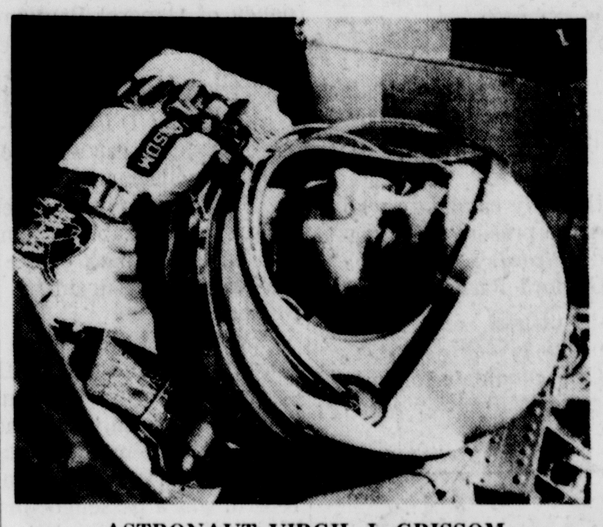

In the final maneuver, the pilot shifted the low point of his craft's flight from 97 to 52 miles, an altitude at which gravity and air drag would be certain to bring it down out of orbit in the course of time if planned methods had failed.

To accomplish descent at the pre-planned time and place, the astronauts also fired four special braking rockets at 1:57 p.m. EST, thus ending their 76,000-mile voyage through space.

As Gemini 3 smashed back into the atmosphere at about 16,500 miles an hour, the heat shield at its blunt end glowed red as its temperature built up to more than 1,700 degrees.

In quick order, the spacecraft's various parachutes unfolded. At 2:13 p.m. EST the 84-

County Schools Seek Corte Madera Site

Marin County is negotiating for lease of 17,000 square feet in the McGraw-Hill Book Co. building in Corte Madera as new location for the county schools office.

The negotiations have been under way for several months, it was learned late yesterday. Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows confirmed this with reluctance, saying he wanted to hold off announcement until a full report could be made to the board of supervisors in about two weeks.

McGraw-Hill has new headquarters under construction on a 100-acre site adjacent to Novato. Montgomery Ward and Co. is negotiating for the 37,000-square foot warehouse portion of McGraw-Hill's building in Fifer Industrial Park in Corte Madera. The part sought by the county is the present office for the company's book distributing operation.

Edwin L. Blackmore, coordinator of elementary and secondary education in the county schools office, said the office needs a better location for handling audio-visual materials such as film tapes and large displays.

These, said Blackmore, have to be carried about half the length of the Civic Center to the freight elevator before they can be loaded on trucks. "It's been a real problem," he said.

There are loading facilities at the McGraw-Hill building, he said.

County Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen said he was aware of the negotiations for the lease, when he thought had been under way for about two weeks.

The move would free the present schools office on the fourth floor of the Civic Center for other uses, Barrows said. He did not say what departments would take over the space.

"We have all sorts of things that could go in there," Barrows said.

He explained his reluctance to announce the negotiations by saying the lease might be difficult to explain in light of the bond issue for addition to the Civic Center which will be before voters on June 8.

"We want to present all the facts at the same time," Barrows said.

POSTERS PROSCRIBED

Driving Rules 'Too Religious'

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

Terra Linda High School will reverse a policy which prevented its entry in an insurance association's safety poster contest this year.

The reversal will come as the indirect result of a question raised at a board of education candidates' night last Wednesday at Terra Linda High School.

The question was asked from the audience, directed to board candidate Kenneth M. Proctor, who for several years has been in charge of the traffic safety poster contest for high school students sponsored by the Marin County Assn. of Independent Insurance Agents. He was asked whether Terra Linda High had refused to participate in a poster contest "sponsored by your company" because it had religious connotations.

Before Proctor finished explaining that the agents association, not his company, sponsored the contest, the time keeper stopped him—the time allotted him for answering questions had expired.

Inquiry disclosed that Terra Linda High School did not permit its students to enter the contest last year, because of "religious connotations."

The "religious connotations" were found by Jack E. Haehl, chairman of the Terra Linda High art department, in the format of the contest, which calls for posters based on one or more of the "10 Commandments of Safe Driving," which have been promoted for years by insurance associations.

The "10 commandments" are:

"1. Thou shalt not murder by motor.

"2. Thou shalt not mix alcohol and gasoline.

"3. Thou shalt not exceed the

Viet Planes Knock Out Radar Station

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Eight Vietnamese fighter-bombers knocked out a radar station and hit military road convoys in North Viet Nam today, a Vietnamese military spokesman announced.

An unannounced number of U.S. Air Force planes accompanied the strike to knock out Communist antiaircraft.

The major target was the Ban Binh radar station 10 miles north of the border with South Viet Nam. The Vietnamese spokesman said the Communist groundfire was heavy, but the radar station was "knocked down and set aflame."

The aircraft also attacked "many enemy military convoys moving along the national Route 1," the announcement said.

U.S. jets and Vietnamese planes also pounded a Viet Cong area in South Viet Nam, near the Da Nang air base yesterday.

Selma-To-Montgomery Marchers Trudge Along Through The Rain

EN ROUTE FROM SELMA TO MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) —Three hundred civil rights demonstrators, some of them footsore and limping, trudged through the rain today on the third leg of their historic march on Montgomery.

Despite the bleak countryside and a gray day that brought intermittent rains, the marchers appeared in good spirits.

They sang as they marched, and one of the demonstrators referred to the showers as "freedom rains."

As in past, U.S. soldiers, FBI agents and state troopers cleared the way for the marchers.

Rev. James Bevel, one of Dr. Martin Luther King's aides, was arrested by state troopers today on a speeding charge while traveling from Selma to the cow pasture where the marchers camped last night.

In Montgomery, police Commissioner L. B. Sullivan urged citizens to act calmly and go about their business as usual

Quiett Tells Of Marching

Word of Marin residents' participation in the Selma-Montgomery freedom march began trickling in from Alabama today.

Gov. Brown Says He'll Run Again

WASHINGTON (UPI)— Gov. Edmund G. Brown has told California's Democrats "I'll run again" in 1966.

His statement came yesterday at a secret meeting with California's congressional Democrats during which he was asked to seek a third term.

Brown told them "I'll run again" even though he said he was "tired" and wanted "to go home."

The governor said that a major factor in his decision was that he feared the consequences should Hollywood's Ronald Reagan win the governor's job.

"The thought of Ronald Reagan sitting in that governor's chair moves me to great lengths," was his comment. Reagan, an articulate right-wing Republican, has been mentioned frequently as a possible GOP candidate for governor in the next election. Another Hollywood star, George Murphy, won in last November's U.S. Senate race.

Asked whether he might not run for re-election if he were offered another job, Brown made it clear that he would like to be appointed to the U.S. Supreme Court if former California Governor and Chief Justice Earl Warren were to step down.

In such an event, which he termed "highly unlikely," Brown said smilingly that he would "like the President to consult with me."

However, he indicated that he would be available to run for office and that he probably would not accept such an appointment before the next election. If an appointment were offered to the high court after the election, he probably would accept it.

The Democratic Congressional delegates reportedly urged the governor to bury the hatchet with Assembly Speaker and fellow Democrat Jesse Unruh, with whom he has had a running feud.

Brown said he would patch up his feud with the speaker and Unruh was believed to have given similar assurances in a recent trip here.

But at the same time, Brown indicated he was nettled with Unruh's backers.

Rep. Chet Holifield asked if Brown was overly sensitive and allowed Unruh to get under his skin.

"No, I'm not sensitive," Brown said, but then went on to tell of needling by Unruh's supporters such as the claim of one of his supporters to Brown that "Jesse is going to be the next governor of California and he's going to be President of the United States."

Brown said of Unruh "this is a tough guy. I'm a nice guy."

JORDAN BACKS KNIGHT IN GOVERNORSHIP RACE

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan is supporting former Gov. Goodwin Knight as the 1966 Republican gubernatorial candidate.

"He . . . would be the only candidate who would be able to overcome the present Democratic machine," Jordan said yesterday in a letter to GOP State Chairman Gaylord Parkinson.

The Republican state official also urged selection of Assembly minority leader Robert T. Monagan of Tracy as the GOP candidate for lieutenant governor and Laughlin Waters for attorney general.

Johnson Says U.S. Must Keep Word

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Johnson says the greatest responsibility of the American government is to show the world it keeps its word "half a world away in the little country of South Viet Nam and . . . in the little city of Selma, Ala."

Johnson spoke of the nation's responsibilities last night at a White House meeting attended by 42 state governors.

The President officiated at the meeting for state executives after flying back to Washington from a long weekend on his Texas ranch. Administration officials briefed the governors on domestic and world affairs while Mrs. Johnson took their wives on a tour of the White House.

Eight governors, including George C. Wallace of Alabama, did not attend the meeting. White House officials said that all 50 governors had been invited, and did not give any reasons for the absence of some.

In addition to Wallace, the other absentees were the governors of Mississippi, Florida, Arkansas, Alaska, Illinois, Nevada and Indiana.

Johnson told the governors that the nation—not the administration — stands for freedom, justice and peace regardless of differences in political philosophy.

Brezhnev Says Russ Asking For Viet Duty

MOSCOW (UPI) — Leonid Brezhnev, leader of the Communist party in the Soviet Union, said today many Russian citizens have volunteered for military duty in North Viet Nam.

The Kremlin leader did not say whether the volunteers would be allowed to go. But he said "the Soviet Union is already taking the necessary measures of assistance in strengthening the defensive potential of the Democratic Republic of (North) Viet Nam."

The Soviets have pledged arms aid to North Viet Nam.

Brezhnev spoke in Red Square during the welcoming rally for Russia's two newest cosmonauts. He turned the rally into a full-blown condemnation of U.S. policies in Viet Nam.

"The American aggressors are digging a pit from which they will not escape," Brezhnev said.

'Spacewalker' Sees Man On Moon Soon

MOSCOW (UPI) — Lt. Col. Alexei Leonov, the world's first "spacewalker," told a cheering crowd in Red Square today "the time is drawing close when people. . .will go to the Moon, Mars, Venus" and perhaps beyond.

The blond cosmonaut, his wife and 4-year-old daughter watching proudly, spoke from the Lenin Mausoleum at a tumultuous welcome home ceremony for him and space pilot, Col. Pavel Belyayev.

The Kremlin leadership flanked the two cosmonauts.

Leonov, the first man to venture into space outside the safety of a spaceship, talked of the moon and beyond in his Red Square address.

"I had the chance of seeing the earth, the sun and the stars not through the port hole of a spaceship, not in a narrow sector but comprehensively, and perhaps fuller than we usually see the world surrounding us," Leonov said.

"I succeeded in establishing that man, wearing a special space suit, can carry out coordinated operations and do various jobs in open space.

"The time is drawing close when people will pass over from orbital flights around the earth to interplanetary flights, will go to the Moon, Mars, Venus and perhaps, also to other planets of the solar system."

Ranger 9 Moon Spacecraft Course Corrected By Rocket

PASADENA (AP) — A small steering rocket ignited briefly aboard Ranger 9 this morning, prodding the camera-carrying spacecraft to a course that hopefully will send it hurtling to its death into a moon crater.

A spokesman for Jet Propulsion Laboratory said the spacecraft acknowledged the signal and "apparently executed the command." But scientists said they would not know for certain if the maneuver was successful for at least 10 hours.

The maneuver — a short burst from a small rocket in the base of the 800-pound camera-carrying spacecraft—was executed with Ranger 9 some 175,000 miles from earth and 78,000 miles from the moon.

Because of unprecedented accuracy in the launching from Cape Kennedy, Fla., Sunday, only a 400-mile course correction was needed.

If all goes well, Ranger 9 will hit the moon early tomorrow, taking thousands of pictures of a possible landing site for future astronauts.

The 60-mile-diameter crater Alphonsus, named after a 13th Century Spanish king, lies in a rugged area between the broad plains photographed by Rangers 7 and 8.

Palo Alto means high tree. Name was given to the redwood tree, reputedly the oldest living landmark to be marked by special ceremonies by Don Gaspar de Portola's advance guard in 1769.

Stolen Art Work Frames Are Found

HILLSBOROUGH (AP) — An alert oiler, working on a crane at San Francisco's waterfront, has given police the first solid lead into the disappearance last weekend of $500,000 in paintings from the estate of the late multimillionaire banker W. W. Crocker.

Three heavy, ornate gilt frames were spotted yesterday morning, half - submerged and bound together by wire, by Dan Helean, 37, of Burlingame.

Two of the frames had brass plates reading "Vincent Van Gogh's "Cypress and Flowering Trees," worth $175,000, and his "The Ploughman," worth $85,000.

The third frame was identified by measurements as the one that held Renoir's "Still Life with Prickly Pears" worth $35,000.

Six other painings and a woodcut, unidentified by police, also were removed from the walls of the 53-room mansion late Friday night or early Saturday morning.

The frames were taken to the crime laboratory for tests.

Helean said later he thought at first they were plastic.

"I was looking for a frame for a watercolor a friend gave me," he said. Then he fished out the frames with a pole.

"I didn't exactly have a fit, I guess, but I thought 'this is it'," he said.

Helean's discovery was added to a police report that a small English sedan was spotted on the grounds of the 100-acre estate the night the paintings were stolen.

Fair Housing Challenge Issued

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The State Fair Employment Practices Commission has challenged real estate brokers to reject property owners who insist on discriminatory clauses when selling or renting.

It urged brokers yesterday to make a "clean break from the old restrictive practices." A code adopted recently by realtors to fight discrimination was called a "good beginning" of "potential significance" by the commission.

But the commission added that the key test will be whether the code is enforced by local real estate boards.

Barrientos

Barrientos, 45, chief of the ruling military junta, is under treatment for a bullet wound in the buttock and for a knee injury he received in the attack.

A man on a motorcycle reportedly fired either a machine gun or repeating rifle as he met a jeep carrying Barrientos and five other men. The assassin apparently escaped in the dark.

The Cochabamba military garrison issued a communique blaming the shooting on "elements opposed to the big national majority that supports the presidency of General Barrientos."

The attempt on Barrientos' life occurred Sunday.

Deaton said he warned the blond youth to stop and that he fired three times afterwards. Deaton said he thought Corcoran was an adult as he ran from him in the darkness.

Corcoran, who had no criminal record, was a passenger in the car driven by a neighbor youth who, according to police, had been arrested once for burglary.

Police said they chased the car several blocks before it stopped and its occupants got out.

Birmingham Authorities Hope For Bomb Probe Lead

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Authorities hoped today that special laboratory reports from Washington would provide a lead in an intensive probe of the potent dynamite bombs that didn't go off.

Officials in this Southern steel city which has a long history of bombings put every available officer on the all-out probe of the six deadly homemade bombs found in predominantly Negro neighborhoods since Sunday morning.

Several of the bombs were sent to Washington for examination at FBI laboratories. Capt. Frank House, in charge of the officers assigned fulltime to the investigation, said preliminary reports were expected from Washington sometime today.

House said several officers were conducting door-to-door interviews with residents within two blocks in each direction from the locations where bombs were found.

All six bombs were found in a four-mile radius of northwest Birmingham where four Negro girls died in a blast at the 16th Street Baptist Church Sept. 15, 1963.

There have been more than 40 racial bombings in Birmingham since World War II — and no convictions.

Bond Committee Will Be Formed

The Marin County Board of Supervisors yesterday agreed to form a steering committee to push for passage of a $7,750,000 Civic Center bond issue in a June 8 election.

Meeting with co-chairman Fred F. Enemark and Mrs. Norman B. Livermore, supervisors agreed that each would provide a list of 10 persons to serve on the steering committee, which will be convened next Tuesday at 5 p.m. at Peacock Gap Country Club if the facility can be reserved.

Enemark, with endorsement of the board, said he would ask Niels Schultz Jr. to serve as finance chairman.

Poison Oak Eradication Called Almost Impossible

It would be almost impossible for Marin County to undertake an extensive eradication of poison oak, according to agricultureal Commissioner Richard T. Straw.

Straw reported to county supervisors today he felt the county's major job is to inform the public of the hazards of poison oak, means of protection and methods of eradication.

"The widespread infestations of poison oak, the hazards involved and the potential cost of chemical control almost prohibit the county from undertaking extensive eradication," Straw reported.

The county has been conducting control programs on county property, primarily on roadsides, which "has been generally effective with many heavily infested areas having been eradicated," Straw said.

"The heaviest infestations are on the woodland slopes and in the valleys emanating from Mount Tamalpais and its surrounding area," he said.

There are difficulties getting manpower and equipment into such areas. There also is the suseptibility of laborers to poison oak and the potential liability to the county for damage caused to desirable plants on private property if widespread poison spraying is tried, Straw noted.

Poison oak can be controlled either by digging the plant out or by chemical control (spraying), he said. The latter is safest for the person involved, but may kill other plants as the spray scatters in the air.

The Agricultural Extension Service through the farm advisor, the county health department, the agricultural commissioner and garden supply centers will supply technical and practical information on poison oak treatment and control, Straw said.

The agricultural extension service has prepared a brochure, "Poison Oak and its Control," which is available through the farm advisor's office at the Civic Center.

Car Rolls, But Driver Walks Away

Harry F. Vantrease, 31 of San Geronimo, walked away from his car last night after driving it off Sir Francis Drake Boulevard where it rolled over and collapsed like an accordion.

Vantrease declined to be taken to a hospital, California Highway Patrolmen reported, though he was momentarily unconscious after the crash at 9:30 p.m. on White's Hill.

Vantrease was heading east on the winding road when his car crossed to the west shoulder, bounded back, rolled over and stopped upside-down in the middle of the road. The doors were jammed open, windows smashed and the top of the 1955 Buick was crunched down to the level of the hood.

Tam Unification Given Backing

Voting "no" was trustee Edward A. Kemp Jr. Trustee M. James Norton was absent.

The board adopted teacher salary schedules for next year recommended by its salary study committee. These raise the minimum from $5,254 to $5,460 and the maximum from $9,981 to $10,920. Salary for principals goes up from a $9,117 to $13,479 scale to minimum of $9,981 and maximum of $14,742. Employees other than those with teaching credentials will get a four per cent pay raise.

Trustees reaffirmed support on bills for appointment, rather than election, of the state superintendent of public instruction, and for state financing of pre-school and other compensatory programs for "culturally disadvantaged" children.

The board voted to support reduction of percentage of voters required to pass bond issues from 66 and two-thirds to 60, and revision of the education code to allow school boards greater discretionary power.

It voted to oppose weakening of unification laws, legislative mandating of curriculum and state participation in teacher assignment.

Resignation of Mrs. Charles Guichard, who has taught for nine years at Homestead and Park schools, was accepted. Charlene Burleson, now teaching overseas, was hired for next school year.

Harvor Cove Corp. has agreed to contribute $500 toward cost of fencing Strawberry Point School boundary as a condtion of an exchange of property with the district, Supt. G. P. McConnell reported. The company will also assume responsibility for improving Harbor Cove Way.

Life With No Parole Plan Urged

I-J Special Report

SACRAMENTO—A bill to give juries in capital crimes cases a third choice of sentence was introduced in the State Legislature today by Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael.

It proposes that the penal code be amended to add a sentence of life imprisonment without possibility of parole. At present, jurors in death penalty cases can sentence only to death in the gas chamber, or to life imprisonment with possibility of parole after seven years.

Bagley said jurors often are in a dilemma. They don't want a dangerous criminal given life imprisonment with the possibility of getting out in seven years, he said.

Bagley also introduced several other bills, including one to authorize a counuty counsel to prosecute county ordinance violations. At present, the district attorney handles such matters.

Another bill by Bagley would allow a county retirement system to deny membership to newly-hired county employees over 60 years of age. County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney reported Marin County is somewhat reluctant to hire older persons since they automatically become members of the retirement system.

KINDLY OFFICER HELPS FIND 'BUNCH OF MONEY'

Three Mill Valley boys, about seven years old, looked sadly down the drain of a sewer near 149 Throckmorton Avenue yesterday afternoon at their lost lucre.

Along came Police Officer John Castellani who asked what was wrong. "We lost a whole bunch of money down the drain," said one.

Castellani pried up the catch basin guard, lowered one boy into the three-foot cavity. The 40 cents in change was retrieved.

Man Suing County In 'Wrong Arrest'

A Mill Valley man today asked $10,000 damages from the County of Marin, charging that he was wrongly arrested by sheriff's deputies last Dec. 19.

In a claim presented to county supervisors, Alfred Hinds of 131 Yale Avenue, Mill Valley, said he was arrested on a bench warrant issued by Orange County.

He said this caused him to post $159 bail and pay $1,000 attorney fees. He declared the warrant was for the arrest of a Negro. Hinds is white.

He said both Orange County and Marin County sheriffs were "grossly negligent."

Supervisors, acting on advice of county counsel, denied the claim.

Alto Strip Annex Taken Under Study

Judge Samuel W. Gardiner of Marin Superior Court yesterday took under study an application by George Leo Zaro and Alcan Marin Ltd. for a court order halting annexation proceedings by the City of Mill Valley of a 137-acre tideland-Alto Strip.

Judge Gardiner said after a lengthy afternoon hearing that he likely will render a decision at 3 p.m. next Monday.

Attorney S. J. Hugh Allen, representing Zaro and Alcan, argued in his application for the writ of mandate that Mill Valley has proceeded through the annexation project with "reckless and determined disregard of applicable laws."

Mill Valley, represented by City Atty. Leland H. Jordan, has already held second and final reading of an ordinance to annex the property. If a "cease and desist" order is not granted Zaro by Superior Court, the ordinance would be effective April 14.

Behr Angry Over State's Handling Of Appointments

Peter H. Behr, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, let it be known today that he does not like the way state officials run meetings and keep appointments.

He insisted that the county adopt a policy of confirming all appointments in Sacramento through the office of Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael.

Behr said he recently flew to Los Angeles to testify on behalf of the county at a joint Assembly Senate tidelands committee session and arrived to find the meeting had been adjourned.

A few weeks ago, Behr said, a Marin County official went to Sacramento to visit a department. When he arrived, the department head was in Stockton.

Behr also recalled that County Administrator Alan Bruce went to Sacramento not long ago to speak before a Senate transportation committee and never got a chance to talk.

Behr won approval for his new policy before the board authorized County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney to go to Sacramento tomorrow to speak before the Senate Committee on Government Efficiency and Economy on the proposed bay fill study commission.

Reached by telephone in Selma, Quiett said he hoped to rejoin the march today as a relief marcher.

He said Tamalpais High School teacher Maxwell Hull has been working on night security when the approximately 300 marchers making the full trek settle down in their pasture campsites after each day's march.

Quiett said he thought several students from the San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo were members of camp crews supplying the needs of the marchers.

Quiett, not a man for superlatives, was clearly moved by the experience Sunday.

"It was very unusual. I marched between a couple. The man was 70 and his wife about 65. Behind me were a brother and sister, the boy aged nine and the girl, eight," he related. "That gives you an idea of the range in age groups."

Quiett was held in "protective custody," with a large group of demonstrators arrested Friday, at the home of Selma's mayor Joe Smitherman. They were told they could go a few hours after arrest but elected to stay all night in protest against not being told why they were arrested, Quiett said.

Attorney Thomas A. Skornia of Ross flew to Montgomery today with petitions bearing nearly 1,000 signatures collected in Sacramento voicing support of President Johnson's right to vote legislation. Skornia planned to join the freedom march as it enters Montgomery Thursday and then fly the petitions to Washington.

Students at San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo were laying plans today for a march from the seminary to the Marin County Courthouse to coincide with the entry of the marchers into Montgomery Thursday.

Police Chiefs Charles J. Chiesa of San Rafael and Raymond R. Buchignani of San Anselmo met with Dist. Atty. Bruce Bales today to discuss measures for control of the march.

At 8 p.m. Thursday, Mrs. Fannie Hamer, a Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party candidate for Congress, will speak at the First Missionary Baptist Church, 501 Drake Avenue, Marin City.

The Freedom Democrats are challenging the seating of five Mississippi congressmen on the basis they were elected by a system which excludes Negroes from voting.

Although San Rafael High School, the three high schools in Tamalpais High School District, Novato High School and Marin Catholic High School all submitted entries to the contest last year, none was submitted by Terra Linda High. An inquiry by the insurance agents association brought the reply that "religious connotations" was the reason.

Supt. Bert C. Corona of San Rafael schools said he had not heard of this when queried by the Independent - Journal. He confirmed it, however, after inquiry.

"The contest has been reevaluated and Terra Linda students may enter this year," the superintendent reported.

The insurance agents association offers U. S. savings bond prizes of $100, $50 and $25 each year for the best posters in the contest.

Proctor said the two entries submitted last year from San Rafael High were disqualified because they were not made to the dimensions specified in the contest rules. The previous year, neither San Rafael nor Terra Linda High entered, he reported.

when the marchers enter the city Thursday. By that time the ranks of the demonstrators are expected to number about 10,000.

King left for Cleveland, Ohio today to keep a speaking engagement, but is due to rejoin the march tomorrow.

Taking their cue from the poncho-clad U.S. soldiers who are guarding them, the demonstrators fashioned rain capes by slitting pieces of plastic and slipping it over their heads.

The marchers piled out of two huge sleeping tents in the chill morning air and stood in lines for breakfast. Some went across the highway to stock up on such items as cigarettes and crackers at the general store of Mrs. Rosie Steele, in whose pasture the marchers camped last night.

The Negro woman's store about four miles from Lowndesboro, was deluged last night by marchers, soldiers and newsmen.

All suspects are from Redwood City. Menge first was booked into Juvenile Hall as a juvenile.

All four were alive, according to Western Air Rescue Center at Hamilton Air Force Base. They were taken to the Pickle Meadows Marine Corps Cold Weather Training Center near Bridgeport, Mono County, which was their destination when they left Alameda Naval Air Station yesterday.

Aboard were two officers and an enlisted man from the Alameda Marine Air Reserve Training Detachment and the military editor of the Oakland Tribune.

Subdivision Law On Tiburon List

A reinforced small subdivision ordinance will be considered by the Tiburon City Council, meeting at 8 p.m. today at Del Mar School.

The proposed ordinance would require city permission for division of land into two or three lots, closing any loopholes in the city's present so-called "small subdivision ordinance." State laws govern splitting of parcels into largers numbers of lots.

Councilman also will consider drawing up an anti-noise ordinance, aimed specifically at sometimes-noisy businesses on Main Street.

VIET

Once again the Communists escaped.

In other developments on the Viet Nam scene:

The non-lethal gas used in South Viet Nam is a compound of chemical agents of a type the Army has employed for about 40 years, defense officials said today in Washington.

In one form or another, the tear gas has been sniffed by millions of American soldiers in the course of gas-mask drills, officials said.

It is unrelated to the dreaded and highly secret nerve gases and incapacitating agents which this country has developed and stockpiled.

Officials said similar tear gases, which bring on nausea and vomiting and disable temporarily, have been used by police departments and are available commercially.

In London, Prime Minister Harold Wilson said today Britain wants an explanation of a statement attributed to U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor in Saigon that the United States intends to wage "war without limit" in Viet Nam.

The prime minister also told an uneasy House of Commons that Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart was raising with President Johnson the question of American use of nonlethal gas and napalm in the Southeast Asian conflict.

At Moscow, the Soviet Union demanded today that Japan prevent American bases there from being used for "aggressive purposes." It specifically mentioned the sending of American troops to Viet Nam.

The Soviet demand came in a memorandum from the Soviet Foreign Ministry to Japanese Ambassador Takezo Shimoda. It was released by Tass.

The note "called attention of the Japanese government to the report that the United States used its war bases in Japan, including the island of Okinawa, for recent movement of American forces to South Viet Nam."

Garden Cuttings Plan Due Study

Almonte Sanitary District directors last night decided to give more study to a proposal by director A. R. Teather for a special service to provide a truck for helping residents get rid of garden cuttings and rubbish.

Board Agrees County Needs Highway Plan

Marin County supervisors today agreed the county must be prepared with ideas on its own on an east-west highway route prior to presentation of state recommendations.

State engineers are expected to present about five possible routes this summer or next fall.

Chairman Peter H. Behr of the board of supervisors said he wanted the county to have its desires pretty well in mind before the state comes in with a fait accompli.

The board asked Public Works Director Donald R. Frost to present recommendations on procedure at next Tuesday's meeting.

Ceylon Ruling Party Has Stunning Defeat

COLOMBO, Ceylon (UPI)—The ruling Freedom party of Mrs. Sirimavo Bandaranaike, the world's only woman prime minister, suffered a stunning defeat in yesterday's parliamentary elections.

The defeat came at the hands of Conservative and pro-Western Dudley Sananayake who had served twice as prime minister. His victory could be expected to improve Ceylon's deteriorating relations with the United States and end growing Chinese Communist influence here.

NO ROOM TO SWING

Young musicians at Coleman School in San Rafael practice in a 90 square-foot room, not sitting but standing if there are more than six of them, because there is no room elsewhere in the school for their music lessons. School officials have urged voter approval of the $850,000 bond election April 12 which will provide funds for construction of a multi-purpose room at the school.

Store Bandits Sought In Marin

Novato police today sought to follow in North Marin the trail of three bandits who terrorized a family and pulled a $25,000 robbery in Southern California on March 14.

Bank bags and checks taken in the March 15 robbery of the J. C. Penney Co. store in Glendale were discovered Saturday afternoon in a remote corner of the Marin Golf and Country Club Estates in Novato. The find was made by a neighborhood couple out for a stroll, according to Police Chief Robert Di Grazia.

"The bandits almost certainly must be familiar with this area," Di Grazia said. He speculated that no one merely passing by on Highway 101 would know that such a remote place was handy for abandoning unwanted portions of the loot.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Savage of 542 Fairway Drive, Novato, found two suitcases at the dead end of Thunderbird Drive at 2:30 p.m. Saturday.

A red plastice suitcase contained two empty Bank of America money bags and 24 keys; a white plastic case held 61 green J. C. Penny Co. money bags and one Bank of America bag, plus 173 checks payable to the firm, totalling $2,666.25, Di Grazia said.

After learning from Glendale police that the cache contained items taken in the robbery, Novato police shipped the suitcases and contents back to Glendale.

According to police and Associated Press, the robbery began at 7:30 p.m. March 14, when three well-dressed robbers, wearing gloves and bubble-type, sunglasses, forced their way into the home of the Glendale Penney store's manager, Ray English, in Whittier.

Officers said Mrs. Agnes English found the trio pointing guns at her husband. The robbers forced the wife and two sons, James, 14, and Lee, 16, into separate bedrooms, where they were bound hand and foot with surgical tape.

After holding English overnight, two of the bandits forced him to take them to the store Monday morning, the third bandit stayed at the English home.

After waiting at the store for assistant manager Al Hastings to arrive, the two robbers forced Hastings and English to open the safe. They emptied it, telephoned their confederate back at the English home, then fled in the manager's car, it was found today in Los Angeles, Di Grazia said.

Supervisor Urges History Of County

Marin County supervisor Thomas T. Storer noted today that no history of the county has been written since 1880, and he asked fellow supervisors what should be done about it.

Storer said there are many able writers in the county, but the book "probably would not be a best seller." He wondered if the county might underwrite part of the cost of producing a history.

All supervisors agreed that a history would be a fine thing to have, but Board Chairman Peter H. Behr said he did not think this would be the time to talk about financing it.

The board asked Administrator Alan Bruce to talk the suggestion over with the Marin County Historical Society and Sierra Club and County Librarian Virginia Keating.

GEMINI ON TV, THEN HE SEES FLASH IN SKY

ROLAND Johnson, up early today to watch television coverage of the Gemini launch in his home at 10 Council Crest Drive, Corte Madera, was surprised at 5:10 a.m. by a flash in the sky which lit up his living room.

Michael Brady, 54 Lakeside Drive, Corte Madera, in his garage wrapping papers, also saw the flash just outside his home.

Police quickly identified the object. A duck had flown into a pair of 12,000-volt power lines outside the Brady home, forcing them together to create a short-circuit.

Automatic switches at the Greenbrae substation of Pacific Gas and Electric Co. cut power off momentarily and then back on in the area. The charred duck was found in the street.

Board Refuses To Underwrite Future Of Marin Conference

The Marin County Board of Supervisors voted 3-2 today against underwriting the cost of a conference on the future of Marin set for June 5 at the College of Marin gymnasium.

The reluctance was not because the board did not approve of the conference and its goals, but because official county sponsorship might spike the spontaneous quality of the conference.

Junius Thompson of the Marin County Citizens Advisory Committee, prime sponsors for the conference, figured total cost would be about $1,500, with the sponsoring groups contributing part of and the admission price covering another part. He estimated about $500 more would be needed and asked the board of supervisors to contribute it.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker, recalling the first "Marin and Its Future" conference sponsored by the Marin Council for Civic Affairs, said governmental backing would destroy the "citizen uprising" quality that was evident at that session.

Chairman Peter H. Behr and Supervisor William Gnoss agreed with Leydecker. Supervisors Ernest N. Kettenhofen and Thomas T. Storer voted to guarantee the money.

Two-Way Unification Stand Is Reaffirmed

Harold L. Sleight, president of the Sausalito School District board, produced a welter of papers and quite a few words last night backing his vote to reaffirm the district's stand for a two-district unification of the Tamalpais High School District area.

Voting with Sleight were trustees Juanita Cobb, Mrs. Jessie Zimmer and George R. Kowski, all saying they do not favor the single-district unification proposal on the April 20 ballot.

Voting "no" was Dr. Stanley L. Wolfe. He said more services and a better educational program would be provided under a single unified district.

Supt. Marcus F. Davis, asked to express his opinion by someone in the audience, declined to do so.

The Sausalito trustees agreed to visit the refurbished child care center at Marin City, to see if the board might wish to refurbish Manzanita School for about $200,000 instead of building a new school for $400,000 to $500,000.

The center was recently taken over by the County of Marin. Superintendent Davis said paint and removal of old cabinets had made a "fantastic change" in it.

Board president Sleight said the Manzanita School, if refurbished, would be better than any other school in the district. Donald O. Stutsman, executive director, Marin County Redevelopment Agency, said funds from that agency would still be forthcoming if the classrooms were improved.

The board agreed to apply for federal money under the Economic Opportunity Act for summer and fall pre-school programs.

Wolfe said he did not see much difference between the program and a nursery school, but Davis said the pre-school program will aid children who are not getting pre-school training they should be getting at home, while a nursery school is "more of a baby sitting situation."

Amondo Flores, district language teacher, reported some Manzanita School pupils are not being given Spanish since teachers feel the children are better off concentrating on fundamentals of reading, writing and arithmetic.

The district provides Spanish from kindergarten through eighth grade.

Alto Group Chairman Quits

Franklin J. McClain of Alto today announced he has tendered his resignation as chairman of the Alto District Assn.

He said he has worked to keep himself informed on matters affecting the community, kept in touch with adjoining government's activities, attended meetings of the proponents of the Alto incorporation movement and, therefore, at the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission meeting last night, felt "in favor of status quo and against the incorporation of Alto."

"As my thoughts are so at variance with the Alto District Assn.," he said. "This necessitates my resigning as chairman."

Attache Case Stolen

Someone stole an attache case containing law books and a pair of spectacles from the unlocked car of Carl J. Schnabel of San Francisco while it was parked at 45 Manzanita Avenue, San Rafael, early Saturday, police were told yesterday. Schnabel said the case and its contents were worth about $90.

Apartment House Pool Not Same

The near-drowning of a 3-year-old child Sunday in Novato was not in the same apartment house pool as the very similar near-drowning of a 4-year-old in December, 1962, as reported erroneously in yesterday's Independent-Journal.

Kent Judy, son of Sgt. and Mrs. Robert Judy of the Colonial Apartments, 1314 Leafwood Drive.

In the 1962 near-drowning, Richard Mostranski, 4, was rescued from the pool at the Colonial Apartments — where the Judys live but not where their child fell into the pool Sunday.

They Watch The Clock

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP) — Consider this for the rankings of the most unusual complaints received by a public utility:

A trusty at Hamilton County Jail, a block from the Chattanooga Electric Power Board office, called, saying he acted for a number of prisoners.

He said they missed the massive, well-lit clock and other neon lights which normally adorn the power building's roof.

Informed that the clock and lights would be out for a couple of weeks for rewiring, he said: "Sure hope you'll hurry up, because those guys get worlds of entertainment out of watching all the lights on the building and the hands of the clock moving around and around."

Novato Auto Mart Plan Is Approved

The Novato Planning Comission last night approved the master plan of the Novato Auto Mart for 25 acres south of Novato Creek between Highway 101 and South Novato Boulevard.

Harry Heifetz et al submitted the plan. The development will include automotive dealers and car parts stores.

The commission also approved the tentative map of Lynwood Park Unit 7, submitted by Heifetz for lots on one and one-half acres south of Lynwood Park and east of South Novato Boulevard.

The Novato Planning Commission also:

1. Approved a three-lot subdivision for Charles F. Douglas at Center Road and Kristy Court and the same for Marin Oaks Development Co. at Carnoustie Drive in Marin Golf and Country Club Estates Unit 4.

2. Gave Arthur J. Philbert permission to install a parking lot in the rear of a commercial building at 1620 Grant Avenue.

3. Gave Shell Oil Co. architectural approval for a service station in the Novak Shopping Center on the south side of Novato Boulevard west of Wilson Avenue.

Boy's Leg Broken As Bicycle Hit

James E. Marklinger, 9, of 177 Humboldt Street, San Rafael, suffered a broken left leg when his bicycle was hit by a car on Fifth Avenue east of K Street at 6 p.m. yesterday.

Driver of the car, according to San Rafael police, was Harold R. Minshall, 34, of 2470 Vineyard Road, Novato.

Minshall told officers he was driving east on Fifth when the boy rode out of a driveway at 2067 Fifth Avenue into his car's path. He slammed on his brakes, he said, but could not avoid hitting the youngster, who was thrown from his bike.

Police said a four-foot hedge next to the driveway may have obscured the vision of Minshall and the young cyclist.

The boy was treated at San Rafael General Hospital, then transferred to Marin General Hospital, where he was listed as being in good condition today.

He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon A. Marklinger.

Three Escaped Inmates Free

Three inmates who escaped from San Quentin Prison conservation camps yesterday were still free today, said a prison spokesman.

Paul Spriggs, 26, committed from San Francisco and serving a first degree robbery sentence, got away about 10 a.m. from a working party out of Black Mountain Conservation Camp near Cazadero, Sonoma County.

The other two, William G. Roach, 26, serving time for grand theft and possession of marijuana, and Jerry Charles Grech, 29, sentenced for parole violations and possession of marijuana, escaped earlier around midnight from Konocti Conservation Camp in Lake County.

Hubcaps Stolen

Edward C. Sargent of 24 Cabrillo Court, San Rafael, complained to police yesterday that someone had stolen all four hubcaps from his station wagon, parked at the Marin Yacht Club, San Rafael, Saturday night.

CD Head Wants To See Council

Fairfax Civil Defense Director Gordon B. Adams wants to deal directly with the city council on his contention that the city has two civil defense directors, City Administrator David J. Sumbardo told the council last night.

Sumbardo said he was unable to budge Adams from his position that under the new city administrator ordinance, Sumbardo is responsible for civil defense, placing Adams in an untenable position.

Councilmen pointed out that the city administrator ordinance makes no mention of civil defense. All praised Adams' performance as civil defense director.

Councilman Peter Arrigoni said, "I suspect he wants to be top man or not at all."

Other councilmen wondered whether this might not be the best arrangement.

Sumbardo said he would investigate whether the city administrator is required by law to be responsible for civil defense.

Has Hard Time Buying A Hen

SAVANNAH, Ga. (AP) — Where can the grandson of a U.S. president buy a hen these days?

That's what Cornelius Van Schaak Roosevelt, grandson of President Theodore Roosevelt, asked when he got off a Dutch cargo-liner here.

It took some time, the aid of a taxi fleet and $7.50 to locate a hen for the ship's captain who likes fresh egegs daily.

Roosevelt asked help from a taxi driver whose company put out an all-points alert.

When he finally got the hen, it cost only $1.50 with a fresh egg thrown in.

GROUP APPROVES NEWBORN TESTS

Measure To Prevent Mentally Retarded Children Voted Over Attack By Medics

SACRAMENTO (AP) — An attack by the California Medical Association has failed to stop a bill requiring every newborn infant be tested for PKU, an affliction that causes an apparently normal baby to become mentally retarded.

The Assembly Public Health Committee yesterday approved the measure setting up a mandatory testing program for the condition — phenylketonuria — after hearing CMA spokesman Dr. Dan Kilroy of Sacramento say:

"It may be that I am old fashioned. It may be that doctors are old fashioned. But we'd rather do things under free enterprise, rather than mandate."

Lawmakers also heard this from Assemblyman Clair Burgener, R-San Diego, father of a retarded child:

"If tests are not made mandatory, there will be born in California children who are mentally retarded and I certainly wouldn't want that on my conscience."

The tests—on the urine or the blood—are now given a day or two after birth, at the doctor's discretion. They determine if the child has PKU, which occurs when the liver lacks a certain enzyme.

Without the enzyme, the liver can't break down a protein substance, which accumulates as the child drinks milk and takes other protein-rich food. Within a short time, the accumulation damages the baby's brain. If the test turns up the condition, the baby is given a special diet and retardation is prevented.

Gas Tax Hike Gains With Jab At Brown

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A nine-month, one-cent boost in California's gasoline tax moved closer today to Gov. Brown's desk, but tucked inside rode a bipartisan legislative jab at the governor.

Assemblymen yesterday attached a rider to the bill, which is designed to draw from motorists all over, the state the $57 million needed to rebuild roads and bridges in flood-mangled Northern California.

The rider stems from a previously subdued feeling among legislators, which boiled to the surface this session, that lawmakers' control over state spending isn't as strong as it should be.

The amendment to the bill carried by Sen. Randolph Collier, D-Yreka, would set up a Committee on Legislative Oversight composed of eight members from each house.

The committee's approval would be required before the Department of Finance could allocate 40 per cent, or $23 million, of revenue from the tax hike earmarked for county road repairs.

The other 60 per cent of the money to be brought in during the April 1 to Dec. 31 period the bill is in force will go to a highway fund legislators don't control.

After approving the amendments—which Collier had little choice in accepting if he wanted to keep the bill alive—the Assembly Ways and Means Committee sent the measure to the floor. It is expected to win quick approval there, and Collier said he anticipated no trouble in obtaining Senate concurrence in the revised version.

Then, the bill will land on the Democratic chief executives desk somewhat different from the version he supported in his message to the legislature. The governor originally asked just for a six-month tax increase, to raise $37 million.

Program Set For Schools In Kentfield

Summer school programs for fourth through seventh grades, including drama productions, printing a newspaper and biology field trips, were approved last night by the Kentfield School District board.

The summer school will be held four hours a day June 24 to July 23 at Adaline E. Kent School. Thomas Smith will be summer school principal.

There will be no catch-up or remedial program, the board decided. Third graders will be in classes similar to regular classwork but with different subject matter.

The program will be more elaborate for upper graders.

Some will take four-hour sessions in a field biology course, which will include about 12 field trips to point of interest in Marin.

Other programs will last three hours, and include arts and crafts, drama, music, language arts, with the fourth hour used for either mathematics or physical education.

The language arts program will see students prepare a daily current events news broadcast, a newspaper and set up weekly discussions, debates or skits on the news.

The music workshop will include both instruments and voice, with at least one concert planned. Two plays will be put on by drama workshop students.

The board approved a request for National Defense Education Act funds for the reading program.

Mrs. Christine Limm was hired as a physical education teacher for next year, and the resignation of Mrs. Joan O'Brien was accepted. The board approved April 5 as date for a debate at Kent School on unification.

CONCERT REVIEW

Young Pianist Returns To Tam High To Play

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

Robert Lamb, music award-winning graduate of Tamales High School, returned to his alma mater last night as a concert pianist.

The occasion was the second of this year's scholarship benefit recitals sponsored by the Marin Branch of the California Music Teachers Assn., of which Lamb is a member, and was also sponsored by the Tamalpais High School Music Club.

The young pianist does not yet seem ready for the rigors of the professional concert stage.

Unfortunately not accounted for by possible nervousness or insufficient preparation was failure to interpret correctly and clearly distinguish differences in the styles of various composers. Phrasing, too, needs much work.

These points were most noticeable in the first group consisting of Mozart's Rondo in D Major, K.U. 485, Haydn's Sonata in E Minor and Beethoven's Sonata in F Minor, Op. 2, No. 1.

Unquestionably very talented, Lamb has strong points that were shown to best advantage in the impressionistic style of Ravel's "Sonatine"—his best number—and the contrasting strongly rhythmic and dramatic Four Bagatelles, Op. 5 of Tcherepnine and "Devilish Suggestion," Op. 4 by Prokofieff. The Russian pieces he played with excellent staccato attack.

An essentially sensitive and poetic nature was revealed in some of the cantabile passages of the Brahms Intermezzo in A Minor, Op. 118, Intermezzo in E Major, Op. 116 and Rhapsody in G. Minor, Op. 79, and Chopin's Scherzo in B Minor was performed with considerable elan.

Ibert's "Little White Donkey" and Villa-Lobos' "Polichinelle" were delightful encores.

Muir Woods National Monument and Point Reyes National Seashore are important Marin County visitor attractions.

Slowly Moving Car Hits Boy

Seven-year-old Lee Pennington of San Rafael apparently escaped serious injury yesterday when struck by a slowly moving car at 3:50 p.m. as he ran into Oak Street near San Pedro Road.

The car, driven by Amelia R. Corral, 48, of 1101 Mirabella Avenue, Novato, was going west on Oak Street, the California Highway Patrol reported.

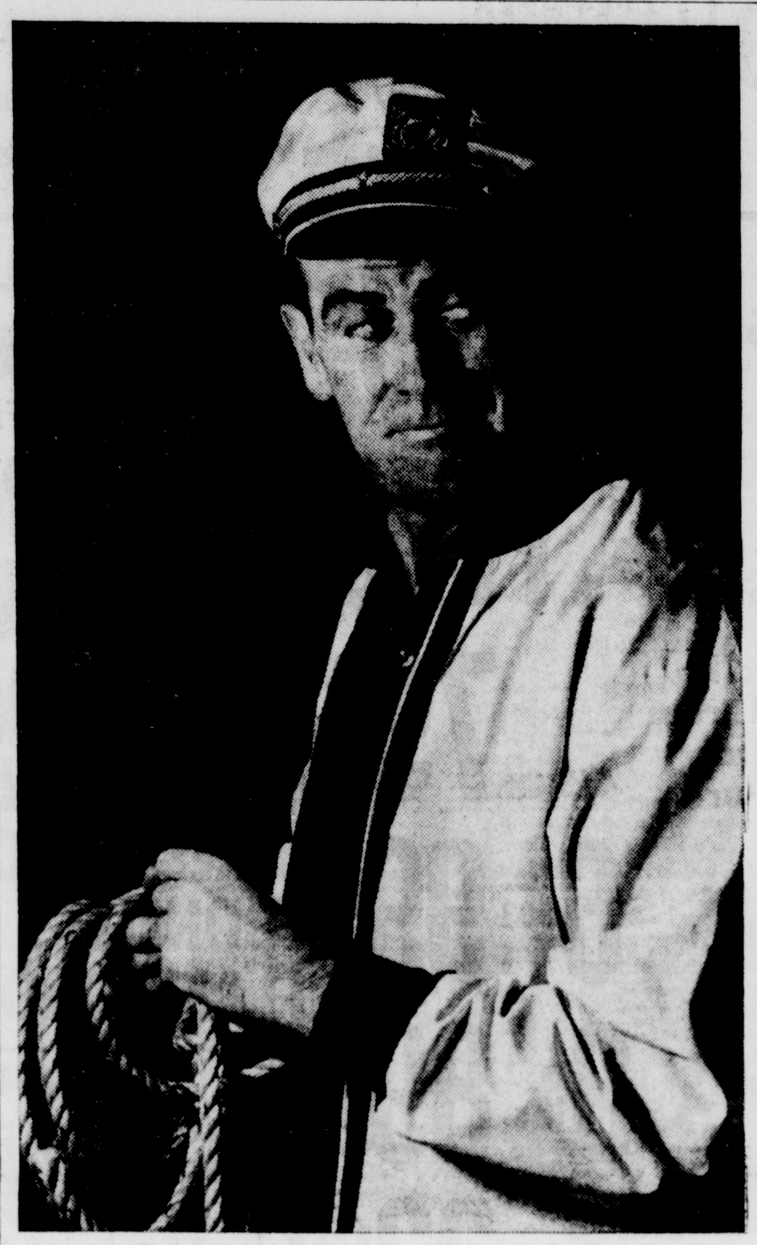

The boy is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Pennington, 106 Oak Drive. He was at home today, though his mother said he still was under observation for possible injury.

Space Twins Orbit Earth, Maneuvers Are Performed

foot main chute deployed at an altitude of 10,600 feet to lower the cabin gently to the sea.

At 2:25 p.m., about five minutes after splashdown, a plane reported it had spotted the capsule and said, "happily it is floating."

In its fiery descent, Gemini 3 built up around it an ionized (electrified) sheath of air molecules which block transmission of ordinary radio signals.

In a final successful experiment, the astronauts squirted water spray through this "plasma sheath" to neutralize the ionization and make communication through it possible.

The experiment worked for high frequency communications, although there was a brief blackout of other kinds. This was the first time any communications had been received from a U. S. spacecraft during the final stages of reentry.

The Grissom-Young flight was a space trial blazer looking toward future U. S. landings on the moon.

Nestled in their 7,000-pound Gemini 3 cabin, America's first two-man space team soared into the skies at 9:24 a.m., EST, only 24 minutes behind schedule. They were scheduled to land in the Atlantic about 2:07 p.m., EST. They began their third and final orbit at 12:34 p.m., EST.

At 10:57 a.m., EST while flying over Texas in their first circuit, the space twins changed the shape of their orbit. At the time their flight path ranged from 100 to 142 miles above the earth.

After firing some small rocket thrusters aboard their craft, their orbital path was more nearly circular, ranging in altitude from 97 to 105 miles.

Then, two hours and 20 minutes after liftoff, as they soared over the Indian Ocean halfway through their second trip around the earth, Grissom steered the spacecraft in a different dimension—to left and right.

These maneuvers had the effect of changing the spacecraft's landing spot 30 to 40 miles north of where it would have been otherwise. Both steering maneuvers were successful and one official called it a "truly historic maneuver."

A spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) said the agency was "very pleased with the operation of the maneuvering system." He described it as "absolutely essential to future rendezvous maneuvers" in which Gemini spacecraft will meet and couple with a rocket in orbit.

The two-man Gemini - 3 capsule rose from Pad 19 at this spaceport atop a Titan 2 rocket which belched reddish brown smoke from its twin engines generating 430,000 pounds of thrust. It rose into the sky on a pink column of flame and faded to a bright star - like point as Gemini hurtled toward orbit.

The countdown was almost perfect. At one point it became necessary to tighten a fitting when a leak developed in a rocket oxidizer line. This accomplished, the launch came off only 24 minutes later than scheduled.

Building up speed as it rose, the spacecraft went into orbit over Bermuda at a speed of about 17,500 miles an hour. The initial flight path ranged from a low point of 100 miles, exactly as planned, to a high point of 142 miles, eight miles under the pre-planned orbit.

The word from both spacecraft and pilots was that they were in "excellent" condition. Underscoring this, Grissom and Young were given the "go ahead" for a second orbit only 51 minutes after liftoff.

Ground controllers were set for conclusion of the three-orbit flight in the Atlantic sometime after 2:07 p.m. EST.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) billed the Grissom-Young mission as the first aboard a pilot in last week's flight by spacecraft capable of changing orbits in space.

Col. Pavel I. Belayayev, chief pilot in last week's flight by Russia's Voskhod 2 spacecraft, contended that the Soviet ship also was maneuverable in space.

But U.S. trackers detected no proof of this, either for Voskhod 2 or any other manned or unmanned Soviet spacecraft. Voskhod 2, according to U.S. Intelligence, was steerable to a limited extend but only during its descent into the atmosphere for a landing.

This is a far cry from forcing a spacecraft, hurtling at 17,500 miles an hour, to change its orbital path in flight. Gemini 3 accomplished this.

Over Texas, Grissom used his on-board rockets to force the capsule from a path ranging from 100 to 148 miles in altitude to a new path ranging from 97 to 105 miles.

Officials proclaimed this a "truly historic maneuver."

Park Use Permit Fee Plan To Start April 1

FRESNO (UPI)—A new system of Use Permits which allows entrance to any national recreation area for a year at a cost of $7 will go into effect April 1 thoroughout the country.

Authorized under the Land and Water Conservation Act of 1964, the system replaces the old method of charging annual fees at each facility depending on the popularity and cost of maintaining the individual facility.

Until now, an annual permit for Yosemite National Park cost $6, but if a person also wanted to visit Sequoia-Kings Canyon National Park through the year, he had to buy a $4 permit is good for both parks and any other federal recreation area.

The annual fee is optional and single entry or weekly fee permits are available.

In addition to national parks, the 1964 law covered areas administered by the Park Service, the Bureau of Reclamation, the U.S. Forest Service, Army Corps of Engineers, Tennessee Valley Authority and the U.S. Section of the International Boundary and Water Commission which administers parts of the border between the United States and Mexico.

The new fee system will go into effect April 1 for those areas which charged fees in the past and it will be applied to other areas, such as the vast national forest lands, in the future.

Money collected for the Use Permits will be deposited in the Land and Water Conservation Fund for grants-in-aid, with about 60 per cent allocated to the states for recreational development and the remaining 40 per cent to federal agencies for outdoor recreation needs.

Grand Theft Charge Filed In Church Case

A grand theft charge was filed yesterday in Marin Municipal Court against Stanley McKinney, 28, suspected of the $1,225 theft from St. Hilary's Catholic Church rectory and adjacent school office in Tiburon last Wednesday.

Bail for McKinney, still at large, was set at $5,500. He allegedly was seen leaving the rectory office by the church housekeeper, Mrs. Teresa Woolf.

Statement of Policy

Regarding Political Advertising

The Independent-Journal does not aggressively solicit or render copy writing service for political advertisements that are argumentative in content. Political advertisements are construed to be all assertions subject to public controversy, whether or not a public election is involved.

Any political advertisement that is not clearly the personal appeal of the elective candidate or candidates involved must show the name of the sponsoring group together with the name or names of one or more persons officiating for such group and their address.

Political advertisements must be submitted in complete and explicit form, ready for the printers, and clearly marked as to size and date of appearance. All political advertisements are payable in advance. Charges are figured at the regular rate.

Advertising deadlines are 4 p.m., two days preceding publication. As example: Tuesday advertisements must be in Friday at 4 p.m.; Monday advertisements must be in the preceding Friday morning. Any intervening holiday advances the deadline by a day.

No responsibility to show printer's proof is assumed under the above schedule.

If a proof is desired, advertisement must be submitted substantially in advance. Corrections, if any, must be ordered by 4 p.m., two working days preceding publication. Any changes from original copy will be charged for on basis of printing work involved.

On the last publication day before an election no political advertisement other than a simple statement of advocacy will be printed. As example: "Vote yes on proposition three," or "Elect John Jones," together with facts as to nature and time of election and, if desired, candidate's party affiliation or occupational identity.

Nearing a public election, no advertisement introducing a new controversial subject will be accepted to run later than the fourth publication day preceding the election. If any new statement or issue should be introduced on the fourth publication day preceding the election, attacking the opposing candidate or issue involved, the newspaper may, at its discretion, make allowance under this rule for the opposing side to answer.

Necessity for the newspaper's disinterested handling of political advertisements is readily apparent. These terms and conditions are adhered to in spirit of fairness to all.

County Commission Rejects Plan To Form City Of Alto

pleaded for self-determination and the right of the people to vote on their future.

"I think in the long run the people will have the option whether they will be a part of another city," said Broemmel.

Commissioner J. Wayne Womack, a Novato city councilman, moved to deny the petition for incorporation. Commissioner Jan Paul Dyk, mayor of Sausalito, seconded the motion.

Dyk said he based his decision on the map of the proposed city, the adverse report by the Planning Director B. D. Dobbs, and the fact that he heard no evidence that it would make a "good incorporation in view of the guidelines which govern the LAFC."

Commissioner H. G. Marchant objected to closing the hearing, saying he wanted to hear the opinions of the owners of commercial properties east of Highway 101.

Asst. County Administrator John F. Barrows, executive officer to the commission, recommended denial of the petition, saying proponents looked on the move as "defensive incorporation" and had no desire for additional or improved services.

"They are simply desirous of maintaining the status quo and consider an incorporation as the most effective way of achieving this," he said.

He said that Highway 101 is a barrier between old Alto and the Strawberry Peninsula and community of interest is lacking.

Dobbs reported the area was lacking in two characteristics that should exist to justify incorporation: a core area and physical cohesiveness. He also said incorporation would add a jurisdiction in an area where it is not necessary "and may inhibit coordinated planning of Southern Marin." He also said it would preclude expansion of two of the three adjacent cities to their natural boundaries.

Spokesmen for the petitioners were greeted with rounds of applause when they made their pleas for incorporation.

Mack Nicholaysen, president of the Bayview Heights Property Owners Assn., said incorporation was a question "of the life or death of Alto as a social entity."

"You have your cities. We want our city," he said.

John Walters, Alto-Richardson Bay Fire District commissioner, said the alternative to incorporation would be piecemeal annexation, with existing cities taking choice areas and leaving the remaining areas with a smaller tax base.

Mrs. Marion Harding of Alto, said incorporation would reduce the number of districts in the area from seven to four with combination of sanitary districts and lighting districts.

Carl O. Heynen Jr., chief of the Alto-Richardson Bay Fire Department, a member of the incorporation committee, said a study showed the city would have an annual of $149,754 from sales tax, liquor license tax and motor vehicle tax funds and expenditures of about $89,000 if services were not expanded.

Under questioning by the commission, Chief Heynen said he did not have figures on the costs of services in the future, and the potential tax rate. "This would depend upon what the people want," he said.

Attorney Stephen H. Kaufmann of 82 South Knoll Road, Strawberry, presented a petition with about 150 signatures of area residents asking the commission to reject the incorporation proposal.

There were 619 signatures on the petition for incorporation.

Dr. Robert C. Cogswell Jr. of Strawberry, told the commission that 124 persons have requested that they be granted permission to circulate petitions seeking annexation of the area east of Highway 101 to Tiburon.

The commission also heard a resolution by the Tiburon City Council that the city's zone of interest extended to Highway 101. Tiburon Mayor Gordon W. Strawbridge said his city is ready and willing to annex any unincorporated area on the peninsula.

At the close of the session, Stanley J. Gallagher of 241 Ricardo Road, Strawberry, one of the proponents of incorporation, asked the commission to request county supervisors to hold a public hearing in the area with Mill Valley and Tiburon "to let the people determine what's best for them."

Broemmel suggested the request be directed to the board of supervisors and the councils of the two cities.

Aside from petitions, the commission received endorsement of incorporation from the Bayview Heights Property Owners Assn. and Sky Pool Inc. and eight letters opposing incorporation.

Students Really Travel To Lab

LOUISVILLE, (AP) — Not many graduate students travel a longer distance to answer a laboratory class roll call than do Alice Halladay, Frankie Tester and Hubert Crawford.

Their lab meets two days a week in the Kentucky mountains at Jackson, a 350-mile round trip from Louisville. The rest of the week is spent on the campus of the University of Louisville.

When the spring semester ends, the trio will have traveled more than 12,000 miles to and from the laboratory, which was set up to give them experience in social work in the mountains.

Carrow Named To Demo Post

Robert D. Carrow, chairman of the Marin Democratic Central Commissttee, was named last night as the committee's representative on the executive committee of the First Congressional District Democratic caucus.

Another representative from Marin County will be chosen by a vote of the caucus as a whole when it meets in Eureka sometime in May.

The Democratic Central Committee, meeting last night, also agreed to continue its efforts to get a permanent postmaster appointed in Sausalito. The committee received a letter of the Sausalito Chamber of Commerce urging such an appointment.

Theft Hampers Work On Corte Madera Job

Someone Saturday stole 20 feet of chain and loosened the hydraulic jack holding up the back end of a house being renovated at 2 Baltimore Avenue, Corte Madera, contractor Lloyd T. Gilardi told police.

Gilardi, whose office is at 106 Williams Street, Larkspur, said the chain was worth about $23.

'State Of The County' Report Due

The Marin Council for Civic Affairs is scheduled to receive a report on "The State of the County" at its fourth annual meeting at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the supervisors chambers, Civic Center.

The council is scheduled to hear from four speakers, including Peter H. Behr, chairman of the county board of supervisors, who will speak on "Will Our Grandchildren Have a Civic Center?"

Jan Paul Dyk, mayor of Sausalito and member of the Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission, will talk about "The Local Agency Formation Commission—Whither?"

Harvey Bragdon, Mill Valley director of community development, will discuss "County-wide Planning Goals—A Brave Effort."

Paul Fanning, study project director for the Marin Transit District, will discuss "Succor for Commuters."

The meeting is open to the public.

Accidents killed about 106,000 persons in the United States in 1964, 5,000 more than the preceding year.

San Quentin Prisoner Gets Temporary Freedom

A San Quentin Prison inmate has been granted temporary freedom by the United States Court of Appeals, pending an appeal by the state of an order to set him free premanently, court attaches reported today.

Three judges of the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco today ordered the Federal District Court to set conditions for the release of Fred Russell Harris until a hearing is held on a writ of habeas corpus, issued by Federal District Judge Stanley A. Weigel because Harris had no attorney when he was convicted of armed robbery 11 years ago in Santa Clara County, officials said.

Harris, 41, was received by the Adult Authority in April, 1954, after he was convicted of armed robbery with a prior felony conviction. He had served time in 1948 in New Mexico and in Oklahoma in 1960 on forgery convictions, according to records at San Quentin Prison.

The state attorney general's office has filed an appeal on the writ of habeas corpus, but officials estimated it would take at least three months for the appeal to be heard.

Conditions for Harris's release from San Quentin Prison pending the hearing will be set by Judge Weigel later this week.

Overhead Signals Due Discussion By Hub Councilmen

San Anselmo City Administrator Douglas E. Flautt tonight will ask the city council to call for bids to get rid of three or four overhead traffic signals on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, replacing them with conventional standards on the corners.

Flautt said the conversion job is expected to cost about $9,000. The meeting of the council will start at 8 p.m. at the city hall.

The council will also hear a request from Ghilotti Brothers Construction Co. to accept as complete the Drake Boulevard widening project from the hub to Tunstead Avenue.

Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn., San Anselmo, has announced filing of an application with the state savings and loan commissioner for a branch office to be located in Castro Valley in Alameda County.

Junior High Unit Asked For Novato

Supt. James G. Bunker last night recommended that the new Novato Unified School District trustees consider switching to a three-year junior high school program.

Trustees asked for a complete report on advantages and disadvantages of the system for their April 12 meeting.

No schools in Marin County now operate on such a plan, known as the 6-3-3 plan with six years of elementary school, three of junior high and three of high school. Bunker said, however, that 92 per cent of unified school districts in California have gone to the plan.

Bunker also recommended that junior high interschool athletics be limited to basketball and track.

"We must have either a junior high school or a high school constructed by September, 1967," Bunker said. Decision on the 6-3-3 plan will determine which it is to be.

Trustee Marett B. Boissevain said he could see advantages in having ninth grade students learning leadership in a junior high school.

"There must be some advantages or 92 per cent of the unified districts would not have adopted it," trustee Daniel H. Barber said.

Adult Credit Courses Due Next School Year

Novato Unified School District will offer full high school credit courses in evening adult school next year.

The board of trustees last night approved the expanded adult school program, recommended by Supt. James G. Bunker.

Its school year will be divided into three terms of 10 to 11 weeks each. It will meet the state requirements of 124 days of classwork, said Robert McKeay, principal.

The Novato district will for the first time have adult school classes at Hamilton Air Force Base, which has been served by the San Rafael High School District.

Use Of Assistant School Head As Principal Denied

Trustee William H. Kirk of Novato Unified School District found himself a one man minority last night when he proposed that the district use one of its five assistant superintendents as a school principal.

By a 6 to 0 vote, with Kirk abstaining, the trustees voted to hire another principal for Olive School.

"We are going to spend $140,000 for assistant superintendent salaries in the next two years. I propose that one assistant superintendent take over the school with a teacher for vice principal," Kirk said.

"We will need them all for the next two years, said trustee Jean Ansley.

"We're overloaded with them," Kirk countered.

"We're not overloaded — the jobs are necessary. These people are necessary," said trustee William Vandergriff.

The new district in a unification is required by law to honor contracts of all administrative personnel of districts which compose it. The five assistants are holdovers from the former Novato Unified and San Jose Elementary School Districts.

The trustees approved transferring Principal Alfred Rivasplata from Meadow Park School to Lu Sutton School; Principal John Laycock from Lu Sutton to Meadow Park, and Principal Ray Monson from Olive School to the new Pleasant Valley School, all effective next school year.

Jack Rothe, sixth grade teacher at Marion School, was proposed to succeed Monson as Olive School principal, but the board postponed appointment until April 12.

The New Novato Unified School Board Also:

1. Set summer school teacher salaries at $600 for five weeks of elementary and junior high school and $750 for six weeks for high school teachers, with principals getting 25 per cent additional.

2. Authorized preparation of call for bids for six portable units for the administration building and high school for next year.

3. Postponed until April 12 decision on participating in the proposed Olive Avenue Assessment District.

4. Heard from Asst. Supt. Charles Lavaroni that the elementary schools need more librarians and clerks, a music program that would require six additional teachers, more speech therapists and resource teachers. Asst. Supt. Paul Mobley reported the high school needs clerical help for teachers.

5. Adopted the work-experience program again for next schcool year.

6. Granted maternity leave to Mrs. Maureen Studen, third grade teacher at Olive School; and leaves of absence to Mrs. Carla W. Terzich, kindergarten teacher at Loma Verde, and Mrs. Mary Ellen Lester, Novato High School English teacher. A second year of leave was denied to Naomi D. Seward, former San Jose District teacher.

7. Hired to teach next year: Mrs. Barbara Roche Costamagna, Donald N. Fifer, Gloria Markowitz, Mrs. Janet W. Miller, Gerhard Mortensen, Donald Nicholas and Mrs. Joyce V. Rhodes. Supt. James G. Bunker reported the district will need between 40 and 70 new teachers next year.

Net Depot Solution Predicted

A speedy solution to the standoff between the Navy and the Department of the Interior over the future of the Tiburon Naval Net Depot has been predicted by Interior Secretary Stewart L. Udall.

In a letter to Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-Cresent City, Udall said he foresaw "no serious obstacles to our development of Tiburon as an oceanographic base as previously planned."

The Navy had expressed fears the proposed research base might cause interference with shipboard electronic devices.

Discussions on the problem, however, have led to a tentative agreement for joint use of the net depot, "although some adjustments and careful scheduling of work will be required."

Udall predicted the agreement would be made final soon.

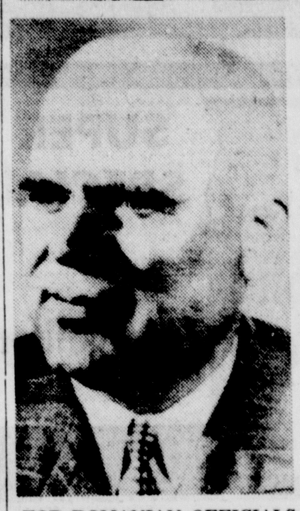

His letter to Clausen was made public by the Marin County Development Assn., which received a copy.

School Budget To Await Vote

Larkspur School District trustees last night cut short their budget study session for next ciscal year after being told that income from the state was uncertain due to the impending unification election .

Acting Supt. Gilbert Slusher told the board the state aid could range from $273,000 to $335,000, depending on the outcome of the election April 20. The board agreed to hold its next budget discussion after the election.

Stereo Set In Car Stolen

William H. McKillop, Hilarita Housing Project, Tiburon, reported theft of a $175 stereophonic set from his car parked near his apartment, sheriff's officers said today.

Jeffery A. Worrall, 759 Tiburon Boulevard, Tiburon, told deputies a battery and the transmission of his automobile, parked at home, were stolen Sunday.

Spare tire and wheel from the car of Fred William Shiger of Carey Hall, Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary at Strawberry Point was stolen during the weekend. Shiger told officers the vehicle was in a seminary parking lot.

Fairfax City Hall Plan Gets Council Support

Fairfax began feeling the impact of its new city administrator form of government last night when proposals by Administrator David J. Sumbardo for major changes in the physical layout at city hall and innovations in personnel and council procedure.

The city hall alteration proposal won unanimous support of the council, but members hesitated to act because last night's meeting was an informal one, without the city clerk present. Mayor Frank L. Lawrence said he would call a brief special meeting as soon as possible to vote the $974 Sumbardo said would be necessary for the work. Most of the labor would be performed by the fire department, the new city administrator said.

Main feature of the alterations is conversion of the old city council chamber and police property room on the second floor to a dormitory for firemen. The present dormitory would be converted to a police squad room, with part partitioned off for the police chief's office. The present chief's office would be given to the police secretary and Sumbardo's office would be the present police secretary's office, just across the hall from his administrative aid.

Sumbardo said the fire department would be able to get a pole for sliding from the dormitory to the ground for nothing, saving approximately $2,000.

The council approved two procedural changes proposed by Sumbardo:

1. Department heads will no longer be required to attend council meetings as part of their official duties. The head of the public works department, however, will continue to be required to attend in his capacity as city engineer, and the police chief will probably continue to attend as sergeant at arms, Sumbardo said. Thus, only Fire Chief Charles M. Thornton will be excused from attendance.

2. Reading of the minutes before each meeting will be dispensed with, mimeographed copies being distributed to councilmen before the meetings.

Sumbardo was not so successful with a proposal for a clerk to assist him and City Clerk Alice Lestanguet. Councilmen W. E. Radtke and Peter R. Arrigone wanted to see the position proposed in conjunction with the upcoming budget. Councilman Robert A. Souza thought Sumbardo's proposed pay range of $376 to $458 per month was too high, suggesting a range of $358 to $436.

Sumbardo reported that he would meet about April 13 with department heads to outline budget procedures and present councilmen with his budget proposals about June 1.

Councilman Radtke proposed the council approve increases in premiums on the city employees group insurance plan, contributing an additional $1 per month per employee. The increases proposed by Travelers Insurance Co. at last week's meeting were for $2 per month for employees with dependents and 47 cents for employees whose dependents are not covered or who have no dependents. No action was taken on this.

Cakes and Wail In Marvelous Marin

ONE THING'S FOR sure. If anybody ever figures out how to have your cake and eat it too, it'll be a San Franciscan. Because nobody else has ever attacked that ancient problem with such persistence and vigor.

You take, for instance, recent developments over across the hardware in Marin County. Or rather the lack of them, which is even more revoltin'. Southern Marin, as you know, is sort of a bedroom for San Francisco. Although at those prices you really ought to call it a boudoir. Or maybe something even racier.

In most of southern Marin you can get fanged with a county property tax bite of $800 a year and up on just about anything that'll keep the rain out. And quite a few things that won't. What's more, about all that buys you is the right to breathe deeply, which is no great bargain when the tide is low, believe me.

•

IF YOU HAPPEN to live on an up-slope—which is Marin talk for any place where, if you fall off the top, you'll hit ground at least once before you get to the bottom—you may have to pump your own water. And in some areas, there's a little extra nudge for disposing of your sewage. Kind of a luxury tax, you might say.

Everybody over there squawks about it. And just about everybody agrees on the cure. What's needed is a broader tax base—some kind of light industry, more businesses, etc. to help carry the load. But. . . .

That means more residents, which means more traffic, which means that another way of going to and from Marin besides the already groaning Golden Gate Bridge is needed. And considering the liquid nature of the geography between here and there, that means another bridge.

•

SO HERE LATELY some crassly practical citi- [illegible] nture from [illegible] vicinity [illegible]sland to Marin without [illegible] their idea is to put another deck on the Golden Gate instead.

•

OR CONSIDER THE Marincello project. That's the plan to develop a self-contained, 25,000-citizen community, complete with markets, shops and other nice, taxable items, in the hills behind Sausalito.

Mind you, Sausalitans would not be forced to gaze upon all this tasteless modernity, since the geography is such that Sausalitans look only at Belvedereans, and vice versa. But apparently the mere knowledge that all those conformists would be roaming around in the brush at their rear is enough to unsettle the notoriously conservative populace of Sausalito, which has put its civic sandal down on the whole idea.

In short, the prevailing view seems to be that the area must move forward, but without leaving any footprints to sully the lush green carpeting. Or to put it another way, that if it isn't going to starve itself to death to meet the taxes, it must find a way to eat the cake without disturbing the icing.

MAKING UP FOR LOST TIME

With the three-year famine on Dungeness crab ended, Ralph Elliott of Eureka seemed to be making up for lost time recently. The crab sandwich consists of a loaf of French bread and a pair of two-pounders fresh from the sea. All signs point to a bumper crop of more than four million pounds before the season is over. Marincello Plan Filed In County

Frouge Corp. yesterday filed a master plan for Marincello, its proposed city of 25,000 on the hills overlooking Marin Headlands.

The master plan was filed with the Marin County Planning Department in keeping with the requirements for development in areas of planned community zoning, Director D. B. Dobbs said.

The planning staff will review the plans and determine if it meets requirements prior to April 5, when the planning commission is expected to set public hearings.

Marinwood Meeting On Fire Chief Set

A special meeting of the Marinwood Fire Commission has been called for 8 p.m. today to discuss personnel policy and decide how Fire Chief Joseph D. Medley will be replaced.

Medley resigned Thursday, effective April 1, saying his salary of $580 a month was too low.

Tonight's meeting will be at the home of commission chairman Harry Biggers, 819 Greenberry Lane, Marinwood.

Biggers said the commission must decide if it will replace the chief through promoting someone now in the department or go outside to hire a chief.

He said the policy discussion would deal mostly with salary.

Robert Morris, chairman of the Marinwood Community Services District board, said he would call a meeting either late this week or early next week to act on Medley's resignation. The fire commission is under the community services district board.

Traffic Signal Projects Low Bidder Is Announced

L. H. Leonardi of San Rafael was apparent low bidder yesterday on two projects to install traffic signals, according to the Marin County Department of Public Works.

Leonardi submitted a bid of $13,980 to install traffic lights on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard at College Avenue, Bon Air Road, La Cuesta Drive and Elesio Drive in the Kentfield-Greenbrae area.

The same firm offered a bid of $22,986 to install traffic signals at Las Gallinas Avenue and Freitas Parkway in Terra Linda. The city of San Rafael has agreed to pay half the cost of this project.

Other bidders were, on the Sir Francis Drake project: Abbett Electric of San Francisco, $14,778; R. Flatland Co. of San Francisco, $15,459, and Steuny and Mitchel of San Francisco, $15,979. On the Las Gallinas signal the other bids were: Steiny and Mitchel, $25,000; R. Flatland, $26,450, and Abbett Electric, $28,938.

Contracts were to be awarded today by the board of supervisors.

More Meningitis Is Predicted

BERKELEY (AP) — Meningococcal meningitis, which increased from 190 cases reported in California in 1959 to 553 cases in 1964, probably will continue the upward trend for another two years, say two state public health physicians.

Drs. John W. Brown and Philip K. Condit explained in a report in the current issue of "California Medicine" that the disease occurs in irregular cycles which average nine years duration.

They figure the current cycle has about two years to go.

Marinite Named Homecoming Head

James Palleschi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Palleschi of 5 Corte Comoda, Greenbrae, has been appointed homecoming chairman at University of California at Davis.

In Fair Condition

Still in fair condition at Marin General Hospital today was R. Keith Dearth, president of Northwestern Savings and Loan Assn. of San Rafael, following an operation eight days ago. Dearth lives at 212 Circle Road, San Rafael.

Concert Planned In Reed District

Almost 300 pupils from nine elementary schools will participate May 8 in a band-chorus-orchestra concert being organized by the Reed School District.

Richard Condie, director of the Mormon Tabernacle Choir in Salt Lake City, will be guest conductor of the 114-voice child choir. A string orchestra of 76 young musicians will be conducted by Lucien Mitchell, a member of the San Francisco Symphony and director of the Marin Workshop for Strings. The 104 members of the band will be directed by William Clapper, music director of Monterey High School.

Hyman I. Krongard, vocal music specialist for the Reed District, is organizing the festival and concert and hopes to see it become an annual event, sponsored in turn by various districts in the county.

Pupils from Dixie, Fairfax, Kentfield, Lagunitas, Mill Valley, Novato, Reed, Sausalito and San Rafael districts in fifth through eighth grades are practicing for the event.

Two rehearsal sessions May 7 will be followed by a concert at 8 p.m. May 8 at Del Mar School in the Reed District.

Publisher Says Authors Given Pay For Diet Book

Cameron Publishing Co. of San Francisco, publisher of the best-selling book "The Drinking Man's Diet," has been making royalty payments to the book's authors, Robert and Marion Wernick of Mill Valley, said Robert W. Cameron yesterday.

Publisher Cameron said the couple have received royalty payments but haven't cashed the checks since they cashed a $150 check last fall. The $150 was an advance against royalties, Cameron said.

The Wernicks said in a lawsuit last Tuesday that Cameron orally promised them a 5 per cent royalty, which they interpret as five cents on each book sold at $1. They charge that Cameron interpreted the 5 per cent to mean 5 per cent of the book's 41-cent wholesale price. The Wernick's said they haven't even received this much from Cameron.

Cameron said he could not say just how much had been paid the couple. The book has sold 650,000 copies since it was published last fall, according to Cameron.

Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court took the demurrer under advisement until April 12.

He said he will schedule a hearing at that time on the entire application.

Dr. Ascherman alleges the board illegally met behind closed doors on Feb. 23 to discuss his application for staff previleges.

Dr. Ascherman, who sought temporary surgical privileges at Marin General Hospital, claimed in his writ of mandate application that he suffered the $10,000 damages by the board's closed hearing and resulting publicity over its decision to deny the privileges.

The demurrer, however, seeks to strike the damages claim on grounds that the district, as a public entity is not liable for any injury caused by its decision of denial.

Hospital Seeks To Halt Suit

A demurrer was filed yesterday by Marin Hospital District asking that a $10,000 damages portion of an application by Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman to force the district to reveal secret proceedings be stricken as illegal.

April Trial Slated On Baby-Sitter Trysts

Jury trial of Leonard A. Grove, 32-year-old Marinwood man charged with statutory rape of a high school girl, was scheduled yesterday in Marin Superior Court for April 20.

Grove, free on $2,750 bail, allegedly had sexual relations with the 15-year-old girl over a period of several weeks starting last September. He resides at 237 Cobblestone Drive and allegedly rented a Santa Venetia house to set up light housekeeping with the girl.

Prison Dope Ring Suspect Pleads Guilty

Frances Baeza, 44, of Los Angeles, pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court yesterday to conspiracy to smuggle heroin into San Quentin Prison. She will be sentenced at 9:30 a.m. on April 29 by Judge Thomas F. Keating.

A second count, illegal possession of a narcotic, was dismissed on recommendation of the district attorney's office.

The defendant was the last of five to enter plea in a ring about $3,000 worth of heroin inside prison walls from June through December of last year.

Joseph Matthew Herman, 57, Mill Valley, was fined $275 and placed on two years probation for the conspiracy. Jesus Gonzales, San Quentin prisoner, pleaded guilty to the same charge and judgment is pending.

The other two defendants, Horace Daniel Lenington, 28, and Robert Lujan, 38, both also San Quentin inmates, pleaded guilty to reduced misdemeanor charges of being present when narcotics were unlawfully used.

Selected Industrials Show Market Strength

NEW YORK (AP) — Selected industrials showed strength as the stock market closed irregularly today in moderately active trading.

The market was mixed from the start, showed a gain on balance in late trading, then trimmed it.

U.S. Steel traded about unchanged. IBM lost nearly 2 and Eastman Kodak more than a point.

American Telephone eased. General Motors dropped a fraction.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.8 million shares compared with 4.91 million yesterday.

Here was the picture near the close:

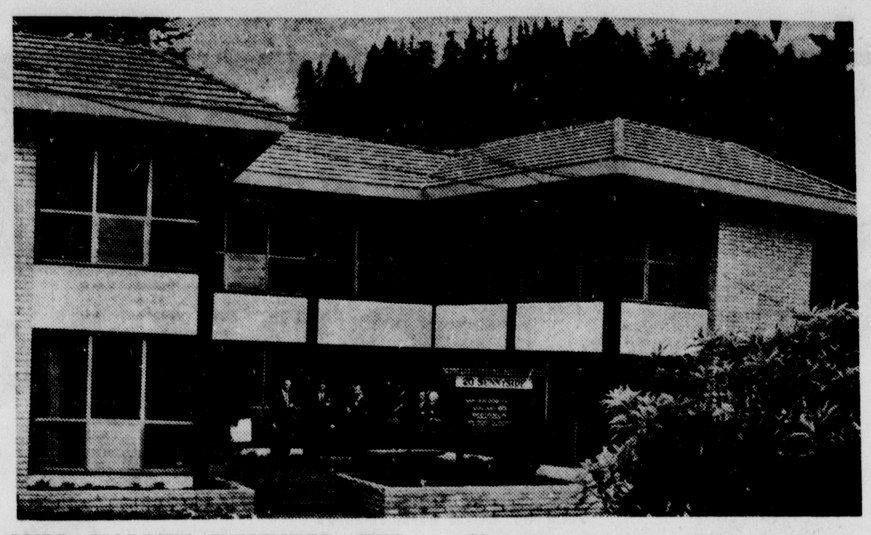

A strong rebound by airlines early in the day floundered on profit taking. Eastern Air Lines held a gain exceeding a point. Fractional gains were held by American, Nationa, Northwest and TWA while United lost a fraction and Pan American was unchanged.

Erie-Lackawanna was very active and rose nearly a point to a new high, making a big percentage gain.

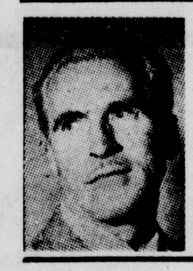

Among other merge candidates in the rail group, Atlantic Coast Line spurted 3 and Seaboard Air Line Railroad more than a point.

Gains of about a point or more were scored by Illinois Central, Xerox, Boeing, Reading, Lukens, Hershey Chocolate, Gulf, Mobile & Ohio, Crane Co., Amerada, ABC Paramount and Western Union.

Prices were mixed in moderate trading on the American Stock Exchange.

New Marin Firm Offers Yacht Cruises Of Delta Waterways

A new charter service, with cruises into the thousands of miles of navigable waterways in the Sacramento - San Joaquin delta region, will be inaugurated this summer by Robert Kirchmann, partner in the general contracting firm of Skaggs and Kirchmann, Belvedere.

Kirchmann has recently acquired the 67-foot Bermuda ketch-rigged motor sailer "Viajero," which he plans to offer with skipper and crew for three-day weekend trips. The Viajero, he says, ideally accommodates six guests, but will sleep as many as nine in berths.

He has sailed the San Francisco Bay since the age of 11, has served in the Merchant Marine in both the Caribbean and the Pacific and has been engaged in commercial fishing with his own boat for the past five years. His skipper has 45 years experience at sea and holds an unlimited master's license.

The vessel is berthed in Sausalito Yacht Harbor adjacent to the Spinnaker Restaurant.

WILLIAM C. BYRD of Novato has been made resident manager for Marin County for Pilot Life Insurance Co. From 1960 to 1964 he represented the company in Germany, then returned to serve Pilot in the Bay Area. For the past three years Byrd has been one of the company's leading producers. He is married to the former Mary Louise Mitchell of Ross.

Byrd Anderson

WILLIAM H. ANDERSON of Fairfax, s alesman for Trombetta Distributors, has been designated a "Man of the Year" by Hiram Walker for being a pace setter in helping the distillery make 1964 the largest single year in its history. Wife Barbara is boutique and jewelry buyer for Modern Eve stores.

THE "TWENTY SUNNYSIDE BUILDING" in Mill Valley, thought by leaving agents Peterson and Greene to be the only building of its kind in Southern Marin designed exclusively for office use, was no sooner completed than five tenants moved in: Francis and Murray, Inc., Dr. Paul H. Henrie, Marin Travel Center, Marin County Abstract and Title Co. and New Products Magazine.

These occupants take up two-thirds of the space, but there is still 2,000 square feet available, which will be arranged or divided to suit individual business requirements.

FRANCISCO RADIO has moved to its new quarters at 132 Bellam Boulevard, San Rafael—almost back to its original location on Francisco Boulevard. But this is a new building —its first home to be designed specifically for the type of products it handles, says owner Dale Hitzeman. Not only is there far more space, but the arrangement of merchandise is better. Additional supplies of parts are now being carried.

The building is the first one east of Francisco Boulevard on the new Bellam extension. Previous quarters were at 22 Woodland Avenue.

WILLIAM C. HALEY of Novato, senior appraiser in the San Francisco office of Real Estate Research Corp., has been advanced to assistant to the director. Haley has been with the firm six years and has handled assignments in seven western states. He is on the teaching staff of University of California Extension for courses in real estate appraising.

WESTERN AIRLINES will commence its new fan-jet commuter service between the Bay Area and Los Angeles on April 1, according to Ken Erickson of San Rafael, who is public relations manager. Western will be flying the large four - engine Boeing 720-Bs. Featured are express ticketing, special check-in gate and jetways, four stewardesses, adult beverages, contour comfort seats and advanced air conditioning. Nine round trips will be made daily —10 on Fridays and Sundays.

Matson Reports Increased Profit

Matson Navigation Co. had a consolidated net profit of $6,498,776, after taxes, in 1964.

The net profit in 1963 was $4,950,000.

Stanley Powell Jr., president, in his annual report to stockholders, said 1964 "in most respects was a satisfactory year," with all Matson services — freight, passenger and terminals—contributing to the earnings.

He said that Matson is ready to study the possibilities of expansion so that operational risks, now confined to one area of the Pacific, can be more diffused.

Gil McDougald Looks For A Silver Lining

I talked to the most dangerous hitter in the history of baseball the other day.

"What?" you say. You thought Babe Ruth was dead? You didn't know Henry Aaron was in town?

Listen! I'm talking about a "dangerous" hitter. These other guys were guys who hit those nice clean shots over the fence or through it. My guy hit ones that went right through the pitcher's mound — or through him.

Ask any pitcher, 2-to-1, who he'd rather pitch to — Babe Ruth or Henry Aaron. Or Gil McDougald. And he'd laugh right in your face.

When James Gilbert McDougald took the batter's box, there wasn't a pitcher alive who didn't feel here was a bullet with with his name on it. In one three-series streak, Gil kayoed Detroit's Frank Lary, Cleveland's Herb Score and Baltimore's Skinny Brown in succession. It got so even a Walter Johnson would be afraid to come in with one out over the plate.

THE SCORE affair was an American tragedy—not to say an American League tragedy. Herb Score was one of the greatest pitchers of all time when he took the mound against the Yankees that day in 1957. He was just another 24-year-old has-been when he left the mound that day. His eye healed after a fashion. The buzzing in his ears stopped in time. But he never could bring himself to wheel the ball over the plate again with his old verve.

The culprit was not entirely Gil McDougald. When he first came up to the big leagues he had a stance that was right off a moustache cup. Like Rocky Nelson's, it looked as if he had picked it up on a horse car — left foot splayed out at right angles to his right and his belt buckle facing the pitcher. The league hadn't seen anything like it since "Hoss" Radbourn. It was a stance for a pitch shot to a wide-open green, not a curve ball.

GIL McDOUGALD was spotting the pitcher the entire right half of the plate. He was still batting an annual .280 to .300—which might win him the MVP today— but Casey Stengel, the manager, was disturbed because it was a dead left-field hitting posture which made hit-and-running difficult. "Would it do you some good," he wanted to know in virgin Stengelese, "to stand closer to the plate with that other foot so's some of my runners could get to third now and then on some kind of a hit ball?"

McDougald changed his stance and the lives of several pitchers. Before you knew it, every other hit was going to the outfield via the pitcher's mound, eye-high. McDougald had most of the pitchers in the league experimenting with an iron mask—or pitching so high and outside that the pitches should have been registered with the FAA before takeoff.

Gil retired in 1960 at the tender age of 32 with at least four good years left. Baseball guessed the tragedy had something to do with it. Gil insisted he just was in a hurry to get into high finance. But when he turned down $50,000 the Yankees offered him, baseball winked.

GIL CAME THROUGH here the other day on the trail of a scheme that seems more down the alley of a left-handed pitcher than a right-handed infielder. He think he's found a lost silver mine.

Now, ordinarily, when a guy starts hauling maps out of one pocket and certificates of stock from another, you're entitled to one call to the Better Business Bureau. Also, to slam the door on his foot. It the story is fanciful, you are entitled to open fire.

Gil has a story that seems right out of a pulp magazine. It seems that there was once this here silver mine in Sonora, Mexico, which was worked by some Jesuit padres who took out only enough to adorn the church and keep the service clean. This was in 1603. And then, one day, they either lost the map, or the burro who knew the way died. The mine lay dormant until 1860 when some Englishmen stumbled over it.

IN 1910 (it says here), Pancho Villa drove the English off the mine. In retaliation the English blew it up, sealed it off and threw away the key. How they did this without leaving a trace, you'll have to ask James Bond. But I suppose anything's possible.

Anyway old Silverfinger, otherwise known as G. J. McDougald, found two Spaniards who had fled Franco and rediscovered the mine. And now he and some associates have formed a corporation, bought a red-ink Canadian company, secured a Swiss bank loan, boosted their stock from 3 cents a share to 48 cents and hope to float a stock issue. There's a mother lode of from one million to 26 million tons down there, Gil says. Either way, at $52 a ton, there's enough to make the Comstock Lode look like a tea set.

Linzy Sharp In Relief, Giants Tie 3-3

PHOENIX, Ariz., (AP)—Right hander Frank Linzy bids for a job in the San Francisco Giants' bullpen this season with spring credentials now including two great relief pitching performances the past four days.

The 24-year-old, who toiled for Tacoma in the Pacific Coast League last year, twice has faced the Cleveland Indians with the bases loaded and none out. Neither time did the Tribe score.

First it was last Friday to preserve a 4-3 victory. Then yesterday his ninth inning stopper brought a 3-3 tie in a game that was called at the end of 13 innings when the sun at Tucson started to get in the eyes of the batters and umpire.

Take your choice which was the best job. The Giants led 4-2 last Friday when Linzy came on with two runners on and the count 3-0 to Larry Brown. He completed the walk to Brown and then got Billy Moran to hit into a double play and ended the inning with a strikeout.

Yesterday, the Indians had scored two runs off Bob Shaw and had the bags jammed with none out.

Linzy came on and with three pitches was heading back to the bench. Camilo Carreon knocked the first throw on the ground for a force-out at home plate.Then, on Linzy's second pitch to him, Tony Martinez hit into a double play from third baseman Jim Hart to catcher Tom Haller and back to first.

Linzy faced nine batters in three innings and gave up only one hit, a leadoff single by Chuck Hinto in the tenth.

"He certainly delivered," declared Manager Herman Franks of the 190-pounder who stands 6-1 and hails from Coweta,Okla.

Cleveland collected 13 hits off San Francisco pitchers — Ron Herbel, Bob Garibaldi, Shaw, Linzy and Bill Hands who finished up.

The Giants had only eight off five Indian hurlers and six of them were by the Alou brothers, Matty and Jesus.

Veteran Dick Donvan blanked San Francisco on two hits for five frames. Bud Daley yielded two runs in the seventh. Matty Alou bunted a single, went to second on an error and to third when Daley threw into center on an attempted pick-off. Jim Ray Hart and Harvey Kuenn contributed doubles.

Shaw, who reported just last Saturday after a contract hassle retired the Indians in the eighth, but ran into ninth inning trouble.

Al Luplow beat out a bunt. Fred Whitfield was safe on Jack Hiatt's error at first and Davalillo blooped a single. Then the Indians scored a run when Hal Lanier dropped a throw on what appeared to be a double play ball. Another run scored on a passed ball. After an intentional pass filled the bases again, Linzy came on.

THE WINNER—French skier Marielle Goitschel flashed Bald Mountain yesterday in a time of 1:35.7 to take top honors in the Women's Downhill event in the Harriman Cup races at Sun Valley, Idaho. (UPI Telephoto)

'Improved' U.S. Skiers Are Whipped In Harriman Race

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP) — The Austrians swamped the Americans in the Harriman Cup downhill yesterday, but a U.S. spokesman said it was the America team's best international downhill showing.

Bill Marolt of Aspen, Colo., placed eighth. But he was only 2.5 seconds behind the winner, Austria's Karl Schranz.

Spokesman Jed Strunk of the U.S. Ski Association, which is developing the American team, said Marolt's timing was the best among Americans in any major international downhill.

Strunk, of Colorado Springs, Colo., said the last tie the Harriman Cup had such international flavor was in 1960.

At that time, the best American showing was 14th — five seconds behind the winner.

Strunk said Marolt's time yesterday was also better than the U.S. performance at the American International Ski Races in Vail, Colo., weekend before last.

During a news conference after yesterday's downhill, U.S. ski team Coach Bob Beattie of Colorado University was asked why the Americans didn't win, and Schranz was asked why the Austrians always win.

Beattie smiled and said Americans would have done much better if it hadn't been for the Austrians.

Schrantz said his country usually has the top skiers simply because it has years of skiing custom, tradition and experience — and consequently a large number of first rate skiers from which to pick the best.

The United States began concerted efforts, through the U.S. Ski Association, to develop a national team four years ago.

The efforts are beginning to bear fruit.

Marolt is only 21 years old. So is Jimmy Heuga of Squaw Valley Calif., who finished 10th in the downhill in 2:04.40 — just a shade over 2.5 seconds behind the winner.

And 2.5 seconds is not much time, when you're racing a mile a minute down a steep 2.1-mile mountain course.

The second place time of Austria's Gerhard Nenning, 2:01.96, was only .15 of a second slower—close in anybody's book.

The slalom today winds up the men's competition. Standings in both the downhill and slalom will determine the combined winner — the winner of the Harriman Cup.

The women's slalom is tomorrow. France's Marielle Goitschel won the downhill yesterday in 1:35.76 on a shorter, 1.2-mile, course.

About two-tenths of a second behind her, at 1:35.98 was Traudl Hecher of Austria. Switzerland's Theres Obrecht was third in 1:36.01.

Jean Saubert of McCall, Idaho, had the best finish for American women — eighth place, in 1:37.33, only 1.5 seconds behind the winner.

3 Quick Knockouts Shorten S. F. Card

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mexican bantamweight boxer Jesus Pimentel continues adding to his knockout string, halting fellow countryman Manny Linson last night as three scheduled 10-round bouts lasted less than a total of five.

Linson went down for a full count after one minute and one second of the second stanza. Although records of his fights in Mexico aren't complete, Pimentel's camp figured it was the 44th kayo in 47 fights. He has lost one.

Counting elapsed minutes, the triple main event slated to last 90 minutes was over in 11 minutes, 29 seconds.

. Pimentel, 119, of Jalisco, aiming for a title fight against Brazil's Eder Jofre, put the 120-pound Linson of Hermosillo down to stay with a left hook to the head. A right to the body set up the knockout punch.

Elmer Rush of San Francisco ended his heavyweight bout against Roy Rogers of Houston, Tex., even faster. Rush, at 212, slashed a cut over the left eye of the 200-pound Rogers in the first round.

Rogers finished the stanza but Referee Bob Mitchell decreed the cut was too bad for continuation, crediting Rush with a first round kayo.

Ricardo Moreno of Chalchihuites, Mex., former featherweight challenger making a comeback, got in the swing of things by stopping Manuel Ochoa, 124, of Guadalajara after 1:28 of the second.

Moreno, 126½, was outboxed in the opening round before getting his heavy artillery into range. He dropped Ochoa with a left to the head and battered him when he got up, putting in the finisher with a right uppercut.

Ochoa got up but wasn't in shape to continue. Fred Apostoli (of Fairfax), refereeing this one, called a halt.

A crowd of 4,600 paid $14,000 for the action and entertainment which included a Mexican band playing for Pimentel and Moreno.

"I'm a slow starter," said Pimentel in his dressing room. "I didn't do much in the first round."

In the second, he slammed a right to Linson's midsection at the ropes and followed with the crisp left hook.

Both Pimentel and Moreno expect to box again soon. Mike Morton, the bantamweight's co-manager, said Pimentel probably will meet Fernando Soto in Sacramento in two weeks.

Moreno goes against Trino Savala in San Jose on April 10.

Giants Lose Three Rookies In Draft

PHOENIX Ariz (AP)—Three promising San Francisco rookies, two pitchers and an infielder, have been lost to the club via the first year draft rule.

Right-handed pitcher Tom Jones and infielder Johnny Richards, each 18, were picked up for the $8,000 waiver price by Houston's Astros. Pittsburgh grabbed 6-foot 6-inch right-handed hurler Quinton Willingham.

San Francisco had hoped other National League clubs would waive on the three players so they could be sent to Giants farm clubs.

Clubs may protect first-year players from the winter draft by keeping them on the major club roster. However, before they can be optioned to farm clubs, the other teams must first be given the opportunity of purchasing them for the $8,000 price.

San Francisco still has four first-year players on its roster—Japanese pitcher Masanori Murakami, infielders Bob Holbert and Bob Schroder and outfielder Ken Henderson.

One may be farmed out without waivers. On the others, waivers must be asked unless they are kept on the Giants roster. Murakami, if and when he reports, and one other, are expected to stay.

Richards did not play pro ball last season, having been signed late in the year. He stands 6-feet 2-inches and weighs 170.

Jones, of Phoenix, was signed after graduating from high school last summer. At Twin Falls, Idaho, he compiled a 6-1 record. Willingham, 20, from Sacramento, Calif., was 7-9 with Fresno, Calif., but struck out 158 batters in 127 innings. Jones had a 2.29 earned-run average and Willingham 3.76.

Secret Ban Reported Against Two Aussies

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — The Sydney Sun said today a secret life ban has been placed on two members of Australia's track and field team which competed in the Tokyo Olympic Games but athletes were not named or notified of any charges against them.

It said rumors about the ban have been circulating since the recent conference of the Australian Athletic Union in Hobart when athletics team manager William Barwick submitted two reports.

One report, which was discussed in open conference, contained no criticism of any team member, but the second report was then discussed behind closed doors.

The paper said members of the team claim they are all now under suspicion and the union should make an official announcement.

The team's captain, Ron Clarke, challenged the union and Barwick today to release the report.

The Sydney Daily Mirror quoted a union official as saying contents of the report could develop into something as big as the recent swimming union sensation when four girl swimmers, including Dawn Fraser, were suspended.

Clarke said, "I have heard I was mentioned in the report, and I want to know."

2 Met Pitchers Combine For No-Hit No-Run Win

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

When Gary Kroll left Philadelphia last August, the Phillies were in first place in the National League. Four months later, when Gordon Richardson departed St. Louis, the Cardinals were world champions.

Today, their destinies joined not at the top but at the bottom, Kroll and Richardson possess the first no-hit game ever pitched for the New York Mets.

Kroll, a 23-year-old right-hander, pitched the first six innings, and the 25-year-old Richardson, a lefty, performed the final three as the Mets blanked Pittsburgh 6-0 yesterday.

The no-hitter, the first of the baseball exhibition season, marked the first time the Mets had a hitless game pitched for them, in exhibition or regular season play, instead of against them.

While not allowing a hit, Kroll walked three Pirates, all in the first inning, and struck out five. He retired the final 16 batters he faced. Richardson put down four more before Del Crandall reached first on shortstop Roy McMillan's error in the eighth inning.

No-hitters are nothing new to Kroll, who stands 6-foot-6½ and weighs 220. He pitched one in 1959, his first year in organized baseball, while with Johnson City in the Appalachian League, then came back the next season with another for Bakersfield of the California League.

Until now Kroll has been awkward in his major league appearances. Last year he led the league with four balks, compiled in only 25 innings. This spring he apparently is benefitting from Mets' pitching coach Warren Spahn and a loss of 18 pounds.

"Spahn has shown me how to use my body," Kroll said. I'm not just throwing with my arm now. And I think the loss of weight did me good. It may have been that the weight was binding me, and that now I'm looser when I throw."

A pitcher who wasn't so fortunate yesterday was Sandy Koufax in Milwaukee's 6-1 triumph over the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Braves rocked Koufax for three runs on a walk and five singles in the fifth inning after he had limited them to two hits in the first four innings.

Washington received its best spring pitching when Frank Kreutzer and Buster Narum combined for a 5-hit, 3-1 victory over Detroit.

Los Angeles' Costen Shockley banged out four hits and drove in four runs, but Boston still defeated the Angels 9-7.

In one-run games, Dick Reese's run-scoring single in the ninth gave Minnesota a 4-3 victory over St. Louis, Philadelphia edged the Chicago White Sox 2-1 on a double by Johnny Briggs and Ken Berry's error and Cincinnati nipped Baltimore 2-1 behind Charley James' two-run homer.

Houston, aided by three New York errors and Ron Brand's two-run homer, stopped the Yankees 7-4 while Cleveland and San Francisco battled to a 3-3 tie in a 13-inning game halted by agreement.

Kansas City defeated another Dodger squad 4-1 as Moe Drabowsky and Lew Krausse combined for a two-hitter.

S.F. '5' Reaches AAU Semi-Finals

DENVER (AP) — Akron's heavily-favored defending champions play Denver and San Francisco meets the Armed Forces All-Stars in the semifinals tonight of the National AAU Basketball Tournament.

San Francisco overturned second-seeded Barlesville, Okla., the 1964 runner-up, in the big surprise of last night's quarterfinals 80-67.

Akron, poised and talented, choked off Long Beach, Calif., 77-67. Denver outhustled Arkansas City, Kan., for a 95-88 victory. The Armed Forces All-Stars used a fast break to steam by Brownstown, Ind., 84-70.

Ollie Johnson and Jim Brovelli, 1963 teammates at San Francisco University, provided a 1-2 punch that sent Bartlesville reeling. Brovelli, a dribble artist, kept the Oklahoma defenders off balance most of the night and slipped through for 18 points, high for the game. Johnson added 17.

Bartlesville trailed all the way and was down 22-12 before Ray Carey touched off a rally that narrowed the gap to 33-30 just before halftime.

Denver cut loose with 16 points in a 4½-minute span while Arkansas City was scoreless to turn the tide in their game. Denver was trailing 55-44 and after the spree was in front 60-55. Wichita University's Dave Stallworth was Arkansas City's principal weapon as he pumped in 33 points for game honors.

Akron, controlling rebounds 56-37, hit 15 of 20 free throws to win at the charity line from Long Beach, which made seven of 18 free throws. Long Beach's Art Williams was the game's top scorer with 23.

The Armed Forces, lagging by nine points early in the second half, rode to victory on the outside shooting of Verne Benson and Calvin Fowler, two back court hustlers. Benson scored 26 points and, Fowler contributed 22 to lead both teams.

Drake Splits Santa Rosa Twin Bill

Drakee High School split its varsity into "A" and "B" teams yesterday and split a twin bill with Santa Rosa High School on the Pirates' field.

Roy Bunt, 6-3, 220-pound junior righthanded hurler for Drake, allowed only one hit in the "A" game and knocked in the game's only run in the bottom of the seventh to win, 1-0. It was a single to score Will Curley. It was Bunt's second win. He already holds a 3-1 verdict over Hogan of Vallejo. His battery mate for the game, Don Alvarado, only a freshman, was credited with a good job by coach Bob Fitzhenry.

The Drake "B" squad lost a close one in the nightcap, 2-1, in eight innings. Ralph Asay was stung for the loss when he allowed the winning run to score in the top of the eighth. It was a solo homer that proved his downfall.

BOSTON CELTICS TYCOON

Red Auerbach Buys Into Successville

BOSTON (AP) — Red Auerbach — pro basketball's highest paid coach at an estimated $50,000 — has brought a piece of successville, otherwise known as the Boston Celtics.

Lou Pieri publicly welcomed Auerbach yesterday as a fellow stockholder with himself and Mrs. Walter Brown, widow of the Celtics' late owner-president.

Auerbach has spent 15 of his 19 coaching years in the national Basketball Association building a Boston dynasty which now boasts nine consecutive Eastern Division titles. The team is seeking its eighth league crown, seventh in a row in the coming playoffs.

Red took on the added job of general manager shortly after Brown's death last summer.

"I see a bright future for the league and the game in Boston," Auerbach said, adding attendance is better and fan interest higher than ever here.

Pieri would not give out details of the deal but said Auerbach did not get a full one-third share of the club but he was "permitted to purchase stock and on terms very favorable to him."

Red would not comment on the $50,000 salary estimate other than to say "I don't come cheap." However, Pieri revealed the figure was "very close."

Amid persistent rumors the Celtics will be sold, Auerbach revealed he has put on paper he will act as general manager-coach for one more year regardless of the ownership. Pieri said that if he and Mrs. Brown should put the club up for sale Auerbach has agreed to sell his holdings too.

Auerbach says he never would want to be sole owner of this or any other team.

Pieri put to rest speculation about possible future sale at least until after the playoffs. "All we want to do now is concentrate on the championship," he said.

More New Marks For Chamberlain

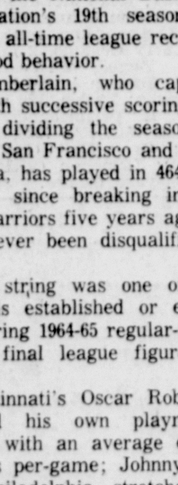

NEW YORK (AP) — Wilt Chamberlain scored 2,534 points during the National Basketball Association's 19th season and set an all-time league record — for good behavior.

Chamberlain, who captured his fifth successive scoring title while dividing the season between San Francisco and Philadelphia, has played in 464 NBA games since breaking in with the Warriors five years ago and has never been disqualified on fouls.

His string was one of four records established or extended during 1964-65 regular-season play, final league figures reveal.

Cincinnati's Oscar Robertson topped his own playmaking mark with an average of 11.5 assists per-game; Johnny Kerr of Philadelphia stretched his iron-man skein through 834 straight games and Bailey Howell of Baltimore was charged with a record 345 personal fouls.

Chamberlain averaged 34.7 points per-game in 73 starts to defend his point crown. Runner-up Jerry West of Los Angeles had a 31-point average and third-place Robertson finished at 30.4 per-game.

Salmon Trollers Strike It Rich; Striper Striving Still Sporadic

The FISHIN' FOOL

By RALPH STEVENS
I-J Fish and Game Writer

Anyone with the strength to lift a rod from a rodholder aboard a sport-fishing boat should have no trouble getting himself a limit of salmon—provided, of course, that no great storm roughens the Pacific. According to several oldtime anglers no such an abundance of salmon in the general area of the Light Ship has been encountered during the last 10 to 12 years. Not to my knowledge have party boats made two trips from the home port in one day and returned from each trip with legal limits for all aboard. Just scan the following brief resume of what happened on Saturday: Sid McMullin of Caruso's place in Sausalito reported limit catches were the rule rather than the exception. "Many of our 18 boats were back in their births by noon or even earlier with limits," he said. The Gina Marie and the Salmon Queen each made two trips and each returned with limits each time. A total of 769 salmon was counted, mostly in the 6 to 9 pound class but a few much larger — to 27 pounds. That's fishing with a capital "C" — eh?

Just to make absolutely certain the action was general, I contacted Lee Anderson's place in Oakland. "Best salmon fishing in the past 11 years. Our 11 party boats registered 165 limits, or 495 fish," was the glowing report.

SOOO, THIS seems like a good time to tell you that I have on hand about 50 mimeographed pamphlets giving directions for boiling, frying and roasting salmon in 30 different ways and including a very easy—and highly satisfactory—method of canning your salmon in a pressure cooker. This 5 page listing is yours for the asking. Send me a self addressed and stamped envelope (use a legal sized envelope) and I'll send the listings along to you.

STRIPER ACTION, still mostly confined to the San Pablo Bay area on both the Marin and the Contra Costa sides, is best termed as sporadic; probably due to the low tidal conditions. Joe Nerviani of Joe's launching at Santa Venetia reported rather slow action with not over 45-48 fish coming in on Saturday, and most of them taken on the late outgoing tide (around 5 p.m.). Joe mentioned two boys well satisfied, however. Hal Delma landed a 36 pound sturgeon, and J. P. Mello took a sturgeon of 34 pounds along with a 16-pound striper. Best bets for both sturgeon and stripers seem to have been on the Shell banks. Joe reported a slight slowdown on the catch of flounders, but Bill Byrd, of Napa Val harbor, told me the flatties are still in the Napa River, with once more a huge 5½-pound beauty coming in. Howard Pape took two bass, a 12 and an 18½ pounder; Frank Fielder also had a pair of bass—to 16 pounds.

Suetta Lagrone of Dillon's Point reported some bass and oodles of flounders at her shore-fishing place. Gene Thompson told Mrs. Lagrone he had seen a redtail perch brought in, but that's the only mention of redtails that has come in.

Lots of rainbow and rubberlipped perch are haunting the Alameda Estuary, according to the Fruitvale Bait and Tackle. This place also reported Carl Svensen taking a 20-pound, 7-ounce striper off China Camp.

Little Leaguer Suffers Injury

Kevin Brown, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wishard A. Brown of 18 Via Cheparro, Greenbrae, suffered a broken right arm during a baseball game in the Kentfield-Greenbrae Little League Saturday.

He was treated and released by Marin General Hospital.

A pitcher for the Edward W. Burgar Inc. - sponsored team, young Brown was injured by a runner sliding into home plate as he covered the play.

Coach Dale Norton announced Brown would be lost to the team for the season, although his teammates voted to keep his name on the roster.

Formal Charges Set, To Enable Firing Of San Rafael Teacher

Filing of formal charges against a San Rafael High School teacher will be recommended to the board of education tonight by Supt. Bert C. Corona.

The board meets at 7:30 p.m. in the former E Street School building.

The teacher is John M. Swenson, an accomplished linguist who taught German at San Rafael High School last year and the first part of this year. He has not taught since shortly after the Christmas holidays, when he was hospitalized for a time.

Swenson is not a tenure teacher—that is, he has not been employed by the San Rafael schools for a fourth year. However, under a law passed by the California Legislature in 1963, he cannot be dismissed without filing of formal charges. If he wishes to contest the charges, the board of education will sit as a board of review.

Charges against Swenson are that he browbeat students and was unable to properly perform his classroom duties, according to Superintendent Corona.

A long list of contract renewals for teachers will be presented to the board tonight. All of these presumably were agreed upon at the board's annual closed-door "evaluation session" last Tuesday.

The list includes 14 in the elementary schools and 16 in the high schools who are scheduled for re-hiring for a fourth year. This will give them tenure. After a teacher receives tenure, he cannot be fired without charegs that will stand up in court, as he is entitled to court review of the dismissal.

Teachers scheduled to receive tenure are:

ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS — Mrs. Lois Eshelman, Mrs. Glenn Harmon, Mrs. Nanette Holm, Alan L. Hopkins, Donald T. Hourigan and Robert T. Hufford, Davidson School; Mrs. Barbara Lewin and P. Stockel, Gallinas School; J. Wisneski, Laurel Dell Intermediate School; Mrs. Sharon Brandenburger, Laurel Dell Primary School; Mrs. Patricia Young, MacPhail School; Irving Blabon, San Pedro School.

HIGH SCHOOLS—San Rafael High School: Walter B. Belden, social studies; Joan Ann Budz, science; Edward Cunningham, English; Mrs. Carol Leach, English; Robert McVey, mathematics, and Herbert Volin, mathematics.

Terra Linda High School: Don J. Boucher, health education; Mrs. Barbara Frick, physical education; Franklin Furtado, science; Edith Lew, art; Dan Losee, industrial arts; George Mathews, social studies; Mrs. Lurene Mattson, English; Sandra Morgenstern, physical education; Mrs. Elisabeth Nichols, language; Robert B. Schwartz, English, and Mrs. Evelyn Woelz, physical education-health.

The second concert is scheduled for April 11 at 8 p.m.

Novato May Hold Planning Seminar

Plans for a county-wide seminar on planning will be presented to the Novato City Council when it meets at 8 p.m. today in the Novato Community House.

Robert Lagle, city planning director, will present his plans for a seminar to include guest speakers and a question and answer forum. It is aimed at presenting the problems that city planners and planning commissions must meet. It will be open to members of the planning commissions and city planners from all over Marin County.

The council will also hear a report from the clean-up committee. City Mgr. J. Julien Baget has proposed a two-week clean-up campaign for sometime in May, to be sponsored by the city.

Other items to come before the council include a traffic engineering study for Diablo Avenue from Highway 101 to South Novato Boulevard, rates for part time workers with the parks and recreation department, and the annual uniform allowance for police.

Boy Held For Hiding Stolen Motorcycles

A 17-year-old Mill Valley boy was booked in Juvenile Hall Friday on two charges of receiving stolen property after police found the youth at his home with two dismantled stolen motorcycles.

Police said one cycle was stolen from Steve Cook, 177 D Street, San Rafael and the other from someone in San Anselmo. The thefts occurred about a month ago.

Motorist Injured In Novato Accident

Robert L. Lombardi, 33, of 777 St. Francis Avenue, Novato, suffered facial cuts Sunday night when his car went off Novato Boulevard and hit the abutment of a bridge that spans Novato Creek near Eucalyptus Avenue.

Lombardi was heading west on the street and went off the road at 8:10 p.m. on a moderate curve. Highway patrolmen reported. He was treated at Novato General Hospital.

Novato Coed In Finals Of Contest

Edith Uunila, Novato High School senior, has been named a finalist in the Seymour Award competition of the California Scholarship Federation, according to Joseph Garguilo, high school vice principal.

Edith will go to Stockton for an interview on April 24, Garguilo said.

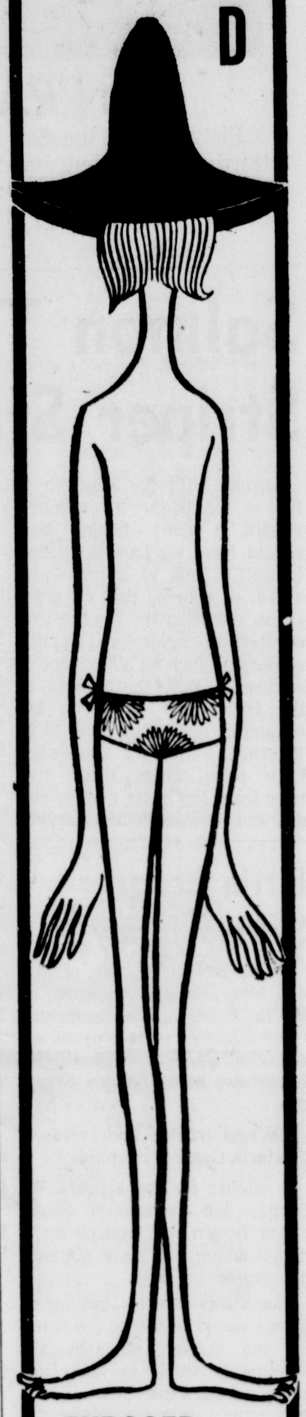

Each year $500 Seymour awards are made to one boy and one girl in each of four regions in the state.

Marin County has 69 elementary schools, seven high schools, one junior college, besides many private schools.

The suit in a bold brown houndstooth check knit of Fortrel polyester, mohair and Celara is fashioned with the mobility and versatility that a woman needs today. The fly-away skirt reveals by deep side-slits the jumpsuit beneath. Topping it all off is a double-breasted blazer that sports the new longer length.

Bringing Up Baby®

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Toward the end of the first year, your baby's manual dexterity will improve mightily. Watch, and one fine day you'll see him (or her) accomplish the pinch-hold feat: picking up objects with thumb and forefinger. Great achievement, this. How else could we learn to write, sew, hold a fork?

•

Memo from Dan Gerber. "Do you know why we "custom-cook" your baby's foods? Because different foods require different treatment. Some foods need longer cooking time than others ...some higher temperatures. Fruits, for example, are flash-cooked...sweet potatoes are slow-cooked (to break down starches into easily digested sugars). Egg yolks are processed differently from meat. But whatever the method, cooking times and temperatures are scientifically controlled to preserve the utmost in nutritive values. It's true!

Table talk. Most toddler feeding problems fall into two classes. One is that the child doesn't eat what mother thinks is enough. The other is a refusal, sometimes, to eat "good - for - you" foods mother thinks are necessary. Important things to remember: a child's appetite usually wanes at the year-old stage and his appetite is a good guide to how much he should eat. Also, no one food is a must. There are several alternates in every Gerber food category to choose from.

•

Lip-smacking and new, for you know who? That's Gerber Junior Vegetables and Ham with Bacon ...a dinner that's bound to be downed with delight. This happy combination of vegetables, cereal and meat is deftly blended and seasoned to please even the most persnickity palates. Like all Gerber Baby Foods, it's "custom-cooked" to preserve the utmost in nutritive values. Gerber® Baby Foods, Box 72, Fremont, Michigan.

Mrs. Joseph Deneri of Novato has donated a Bird respirator to the Novato Hospital Volunteer Service in memory of her late husband.

The respirator will be kept at the hospital for use of anyone in the community free of charge, except for a charge for oxygen. This is a much needed piece of equipment especially for patients just coming out of surgery according to Mrs. Robert Henshillwood, publicity chairman for the volunteers.

Brown Act's Preamble An Inspiring Statement

"The Brown Act was born out of the (Joseph) McCarthy period and was not needed."

This is the advice given by the city attorney to Fairfax city councilmen.

This same Brown Act, the state's so-called open-meeting law, evokes a different reaction from other quarters.

Stanley Mosk, former state attorney general and now state supreme court justice, made the following observations at a statewide conference of the League of California Cities in 1960:

"I earnestly and sincerely feel that the Brown Act, and particularly its so-called preamble, is one of the most remarkable and inspiring statements on government that I have ever read . . .

"This well could have been written by our founding fathers for it rings of the same free and determined American spirit that is found in our Constitution in those measured but sweeping words, 'governments deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed' . . .

"Gentlemen, it seems to me that any attempts to poke legal holes in the Brown Act are blatantly contrary to the spirit and intent of the statute and that such efforts will certainly create antagonism from the public, the press and the Legislature. It will undoubtedly bring about amendments that will be based on the assumption, true or false, that you cannot rule under a reasonable common sense concept without benefit of a chapter-and-verse guidebook."

These are the words of the then Attorney General Mosk, now supreme court justice, addressing representatives of all cities in California.

And he was referring to the same Brown Act, which is considered "not needed" by a city attorney in Marin.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

YOUNGSTER SAVES HIS FAMILY

A 10-year-old boy raced four times into his burning home in Lakewood, N. J., and rescued his five brothers and sisters from the flames.

The young hero, whose parents were away at the time, raced across the street to tell a neighbor: "My house is on fire, mister! Call the fire department."

Instead of waiting for help, he rushed into the house to carry out his 2-month-old brother. Then he lifted his year-old sister and led the others to safety.

"There's no doubt about it," the police chief said later, "the boy saved all their lives."

Knowing what to do in an emergency is one thing; actually carrying it out can be quite another.

When situations arise that call for quick action, seek assistance from those best equipped to give it. But don't stop there. You may unlock surprising powers, with the Lord's help, if you do what you can without delay.

"Run with patience to the fight set before us." (Hebrews 12:1)

QUOTA MOVE OFF, TOO

There's A Deafening Silence On Repealing Liquor Price Law

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The talk around the capitol about repealing the state's fair trade pricing law on liquor has developed into a deafening silence.

About the same is true of a Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control proposal to take the quotas off issuance of liquor licenses.

Seven or eight months ago, Gov. Edmund G. Brown shook up the off-sale liquor industry by making some comments about the price of whisky being too high in California. Time went on and the governor did not backtrack.

EARLY IN THE 1963 session, Brown said he would seek to repeal provisions for state enforcement of the Fair Trade Act. Along with this, Brown promised a program on liquor licensing, generally designed to stop the spiraling costs of licenses when transferred from one person to another.

But all Brown ran into on the fair trade proposal was opposition. Reports are that he still has not found a legislator who would care to author such a bill. Reports also are that he has been told by committee chairmen such a bill could not clear their committees.

Thus there would be little point in the introduction of a fair trade repealer and it would cause friction without accomplishing anything.

CALIFORNIA HAS a fair trade system for hard liquor, used in only two other states. Distillers, brand owners or wholesalers file price lists with the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, stating at what price they sell various brands of liquor and what the minimum retail price must be.

The ABC department then must enforce the minimum retail price. Penalty for selling below the fair trade price could be a license suspension, fine, or even revocation of the license.

COMPOUNDING THE fair trade problem is the limit on numbers of licenses imposed by the state. In any county, there may be no more than one on-sale liquor license for each 2,000 residents or one off-sale license for each 2,500 persons. Because of other restrictions, fast-growing counties do not have even this many licenses and the prices on the open market go as high as $50,000 for a license which is sold by the state originally for only $6,000.

Brown has said he feels this is just too much—liquor store owners are protected from competition because of the limit on licenses, and they're protected from price competition because of the fair trade law. There have been estimates the consumers in California may be paying $175 million more a year for liquor than they would if there were free and open competition.

The bill now before the Legislature, which would appear to represent about as far as the lawmakers will go, has been introduced by Sen. Luther E. Gibson, D-Vallejo, chairman of the Senate Governmental Efficiency Committee.

Gibson's bill, S. B. 698, would prohibit issuance of any new on-sale or off-sale liquor licenses until Oct. 1, 1967. It would permit transfers of licenses from one county to another, now prohibited, provided the county was entitled to more licenses on a population basis.

THE ABC department had favored an inter-county transfer approach, to be followed in two years with legislation permitting unlimited issuance of licenses at a higher price—$15,000. However, the department had favored permitting inter-county transfers without regard to population quotas.

The department, and the governor, are expected to give reluctant approval to Gibson's bill.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Unification Will Benefit Children

Editor, Independent-Journal:

As Mrs. Nightingale pointed out in her letter last week, it is very important for us to find out how unification would affect the individual Marin student. However, her feeling that small school districts can do more for the individual child is not supported by any evidence.

Small schools and small classes are very necessary for good education, but these will be encouraged by unification. Your child will continue to attend his neighborhood school, and hopefully, the additional state funds will provide for an even lower student-to-teacher ratio. Furthermore, a unified district can provide a wider variety of classes and services for all children from retarded to brilliant than any one of the seperate school districts can do now.

Unification provides bigness where it counts, in efficient administration; and smallness where it counts, in school and class size.

Marincello Tax Promise Unfair

Editor, Independent-Journal:

One of the weaker arguments advanced by backers of the proposed city of Marincello is that it will deliver an annual tax surplus to Marin County. Since cities are not in the habit of making money, there has to be an unusual and ideal set of factors working perfectly together to produce a surplus. I do not believe Marincello would have the magical combination.

First must come sufficient light industry, not dismayed by hilly terrain, and attracted by a labor force living right in the city. This labor force must be attracted by low-rent housing, made possible by construction costs which this eastern firm says can be lower than for local builders, even though the same building code requirements and labor costs must be met. If housing for lower income families must be underwritten, this will be done by increasing the rents charged for luxury apartments, an expedient which I question, since the climate of Marincello might cause a higher rate of vacancy. And, of course, there must not be too many school children to eat up tax money, not more than 2,000 in a population of 25,000.

It is misleading, therefore, to use a promised tax surplus as an argument in favor of this proposed new city.

All Are Aiming At Good Education

Editor, Independent-Journal:

. . . Surely the objectives of all of us, whether for or against unification of the Tamalpais Union High School District, are the same: Fostering excellence in education in the schools of the area. Differences of view on how these objectives are to be attained must not be allowed to mar social and working relationships. . . .

Harsh words and impugnment of good faith are to be avoided; the views of those with whom one does not agree are to be listened to respectfully at least. Somehow Dr. Martin Durfee's "A Parent's Prayer" serves as an eloquent and inspiring reminder of the fact that, regardless of all else, our hopes and aspirations are the same. . . .

Not Enough Local Coverage In Sports

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The recent I-J contest to advertise the fact that the "local" paper is locally orientated is a lot of hogwash. At least it is in regard to the sports pages. Take a look at Monday's (March 15) issue:

. . . The "local" I-J devoted 273½ inches to . . . nationally directed stories. Only 62½ inches mentioned local sporting activity. . . .

The number of items was equally disparate in that 29 national stories received space while only 11 local stories were worthy of printed space.

Out of four sports pictures, none were local.

. . . You can look back at the last six issues and find the same results. Your paper does not seem to know or care to print the correct name of the local high school athletic league. The name is the Marin County Athletic League or the M. C. A. L. It is not the Marin Athletic League or the M. A. L. Webster defines MAL as denoting ill, bad or evil. I am sure the "MAL" boys appreciate your space saving.

Whoever is in charge of the "local" sports page should get off our local dime and on the road to covering Marin County athletic events. . . . Is the sports editor a graduate of the high school at Redwood?

Churchwoman Thanks Students

Editor, Independent-Journal:

On behalf of Church World Service (women of all churches who collect and mend clothing for those in need) I wish to thank the seniors of Tam High. They were most courteous and kind to us last Saturday (March 13) following their Rummage Sale.

Not only did they help us bag the unsold clothing, but carried it to our cars — AND offered us a cup of hot coffee!

For those who hear only the sordid stories of a FEW young people, I wish to remind them again of the innate fineness of our future generation.

We are VERY proud of them!

Mayor Wornum Not 'Chided'

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Under the headline Mayor Chided you printed in yesterday's (March 16) issue a somewhat condensed version of my remarks, using the word chided again in the first line of the short paragraph devoted to my statement at the last Mill Valley City Council meeting.

Permit me to put on record that I assured the mayor of my personal support and sympathy; and further stated that he can easily afford to ignore and forget the incident because it can confidently be expected that the citizens of Mill Valley will not think a bit less of their mayor and city council because of the intemperate words used by a lawyer submitting a complaint.

I had no intention of chiding (Webster: scold, to voice disapproval) the mayor and subsequent conversations with Mr. Wornum, Mrs. White and Mrs. Balmer confirmed that none of them interpreted my remarks as being critical, antagonistic or disapproving.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

ONCE UPON a time there was a parrot who could say only three little words: "Who is it?" One day when the parrot was alone in the house there was a loud knock on the door. "Who is it?" screeched the parrot. "It's the plumber," the visitor responded. "Who is it?" repeated the parrot. "It's the plumber, I tell you," was the reply. "You called me to tell me your cellar was flooded." Again the parrot called, "Who is it?" By this time the plumber became so angry that he fainted. A neighbor rushed over to see the cause of the commotion, and gazing at the unfamiliar face of the prostrate plumber, asked, "Who is it?" The parrot answered, "It's the plumber."

AN AMERICAN tourist wandered into a small Hamburg rathskeller and demanded a dry martini. The waiter looked blank, so the tourist repeated, "Dry martini!" So the waiter shuffled off and came back with three martinis.

Job Corps Hires Big Business To Conduct Training Programs

WASHINGTON — A marvelously revolutionary decision is being carried out by the Johnson administration in its war on poverty.

Some old New Dealers, who looked upon business as the enemy of the federal government, would turn over in their graves if they saw what is happening today.

WHAT IS HAPPENING is that the administration—fully aware of what it is doing—is enlisting the motive power of profit to generate social progress.

To do this the Office of Economic Opportunity is letting contracts to private business to produce social services exactly as the Pentagon lets contracts to private business to produce bombers.

This policy stems from the very top of the anti-poverty program—President Lyndon B. Johnson himself, co-ordinator Sargent Shriver, and Dr. Otis A. Singletary, director of the Job Corps.

Shriver and Dr. Singletary and the big corporations, which are beginning to work with them, are breaking new ground in the attitude of government toward business and in the attitude of business toward government.

Business building ships and tanks at a profit? Obvious.

But it is not ridiculous to the Johnson administration, which views business as an ally, not as an enemy. It is not ridiculous to Shriver and Singletary, who are directed by Congress in the Anti-Poverty Act to "marshall the resources of the nation" to attack the causes of poverty and unemployment.

ONE OF THE causes of unemployment is the lack of education and technical skills on the part of hundreds of thousands of school drop-outs who can't get jobs or hold them.

To give these youngsters of bleak and poverty-stricken background skills, good work habits and hope, the Job Corps is opening 68 urban and rural training centers. They will have 40,000 students this year, probably 100,000 by next year.

To operate these training centers, the Job Corps is contracting with universities, state schools and private industry. The Federal Electric Co. is operating the Camp Kilmer center in New Jersey; Litton Industries is running the Camp Parks center in California. General Electric and Philco have subcontracts with universities to handle the vocational training in Kentucky and Oregon. Other large corporations are interested.

THE JOB CORPS makes no apology for allowing private enterprise to make a profit in providing social and welfare services. It is using some of the big corporations because of their wide, practical experience in vocational training and in developing new materials and teaching techniques specially needed to build the skills which uneducated youth must have if they are to become employable.

The profit will be limited by the tough, business-like, nonelastic contracts which are being negotiated. Company overhead and interest on investment will not be paid by the government. The net percentage of profit before taxes will range from about 3.7 per cent and down.

This is a constructive, pioneer effort by the Job Corps and business to mobilize controlled profit to the cause of social welfare. The Job Corps is turning to the best, specialized experts to help. And private enterprise is responding with a high sense of public responsibility and intelligent self-interest.

THERE IS A tremendous potential in harnessing the profit motive to social welfare.

LBJ Facing Decision On Viet Missile Risk

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Lyndon B. Johnson is grappling with a grim choice in a deadly race against time in the intensifying air war in Viet Nam.

He must decide between two fateful alternatives:

1. To authorize massive air strikes to destroy the Communists' crucial airfields, rail lines, marshaling yards, industrial plants and other vital installations and facilities at Hanoi and its main port at nearby Haiphong.

So far, in the "controlled" bombing policy now in effect, these vital targets have been untouched. Only relatively minor ones are being hit in U. S. and South Viet Nam air attacks.

2. To allow the Reds sufficient time to install Russian SAM (ground-to-air) missiles capable of imposing as high as 85 per cent losses on attacking planes. Such losses now average less than 3 per cent.

Intelligence authorities estimate the lethally destructive SAM missiles will be operative around April 1.

Directly involved in the president's "agonizing" decision is another equally stark problem—taking forceful measures to prevent the Soviet from delivering these fearful anti-aircraft weapons.

Freighters loaded with these missiles are known to be en route to North Viet Nam.

As has long been the case, President Johnson's inner council is split squarely down the middle over taking such a fateful calculated risk.

The Joint Chiefs of Staff are strongly arguing that one of two courses must be pursued: Either launch all-out air attacks to demolish the Reds' crucial plants, depots and other installations and facilities at Hanoi and Haiphong, or use the Seventh Fleet to turn back the Soviet ships carrying the deadly SAM missiles.

SECRETARY of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara and McGeorge Bundy, highly influential special White House adviser on foreign affairs, are vigorously against both courses.

They favor employing the Seventh Fleet to assist South Viet Nam to thwart Red smuggling of arms and guerrillas to the Viet Cong. But the trio is opposed to other naval measures, particularly intervening with Russian shipping, on the ground they would constitute acts of war.

The Bundy-Rusk-McNamara position is that the "controlled" bombing policy now in effect will exert sufficient pressure on Hanoi to bring about negotiations for a settlement.

The Joint Chiefs are convinced that is an unsound theory. As evidence, they cite the incontrovertible fact that "controlled" bombing has had no effect on Hanoi.

It is the emphatic view of the military leaders that the Ho Chi Minh regime can be "brought to the conference table" only by two immediate stringent measures: Massive air attacks on the key Hanoi-Haiphong targets, coupled with a tight Seventh Fleet blockade of the North Viet Nam coast to bar Soviet and other arms shipments and supplies.

So far, President Johnson has given no indication what he is likely to do.

Novato May Find Itself With Three Nice Parks This Summer

Novato, which has been trying unsuccessfully for years to get a park system going, suddenly may find itself with three of them this summer.

The first one which the city actually worked on is the Pioneer Memorial Park, made out of the old Novato Cemetery. Although technically this is not a park for children to play in, they have been doing it for years. With the city taking it over, it will assume some of the dignity which it deserves as a memorial park.

IT HAD BEEN the object of vandals for many years. Efforts to get the former owners to do anything about it were as futile as trying to bail the ocean with a cup. At last some church group took over restoring it. This work was quickly undone by the vandals.

So disgraceful was the work of the ghoulish gravestone wreckers that decent-minded students at Novato High School volunteered to help with restoration work. So did adult service groups.

There will be a public work day to clean up the cemetery this Saturday. The North Marin Youth Council and Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce are heading the drive.

ALL THE TREES have been trimmed and removed. Now is the time to clean up debris and brush.

Perhaps when this centrally located park has been cleaned up and people can see the possibilities, adjoining lands will be purchased and the city can incorporate this as the nucleus of a city park.

THE SECOND PARK, which is actually older than the city, is the Mahlsted Park at the end of Hayden Drive. This is an oval-shaped piece of ground that was dedicated to public use in 1890 by Home and Farm Co. of California.

Although the park is small, it would make a beautiful spot to view the city from the top of the hill. The city has made no plans for this park as of now.

THE THIRD PARK which may fall into city care this summer is already a going, developed park. The Novato Lions Club leased an area 450 by 600 feet near the filtration plant at Stafford Lake, from the North Marin Water District in 1957.

Since that time, the club has constructed a road into it, built rest rooms and picnic facilities. Now it wants to turn this over to the city for the city to operate as a public park.

The water district board gave its consent last week.

NOW THE CITY parks and recreation department will make a study of the cost of operating this park, refer the matter to the city parks and recreation advisory commission, and if it approves, to the city council.

If the council approves the transfer, then the city will have a park at Stafford Lake which could be the nucleus of a bigger park.

If the Novato Civic Foundation is half as successful at getting funds and lands for city park system as some of its founders think, Novato may have a park system before some of the people are aware that there is anything going on.

Pros, Cons Of Race Struggles Cause Him To Doubt Humankind

MY MAIL OFTEN brings me clippings of the likeness that appears in some papers with my column, to which various embellishments have been added. These revisions usually disclosed I had a hole in my head, but recently the artists have taken to displaying my horns.

And the note this morning had this to say: "You are not merely the Devil's Advocate that you pretend to be. In your all-out support of Goldwater, in your stubborn resistance to all progressive legislation and, above all, in your revealing hatred of the Negro and all other minorities, you expose yourself as the devil's right-hand man, and I sometimes think you may be the devil himself. May you rot for all eternity!"

Now that charge may or may not be justified, but I doubt whether it can be judged dispassionately in today's climate.

FOR IT IS SURELY no exaggeration to say we are now torn asunder with hatred as never before in my lifetime and that the mob spirit fills the air. Everything is either—the phrase, I regret, is inevitable—black or white, and if you're not for me all the way, you're against me. Your lynch law is inhuman, but mine is noble because it is exercised in the name of friendship and brotherly love.

The pressures are terrific and none of us but bows somewhat under their onslaught. I have some 20 letters from Negroes—mainly from the South, but a few from California—who say bitterly they have seen 40 years of increasing good will between the races go down the drain because of the "foreign" —the word is theirs, not mine —intrusion into their communities.

ONE WRITES ruefully that he finds himself forced to take part in a "demonstration" which he finds completely senseless. He votes, has an excellent job with his white employers and is on the best of terms with them—but, unless he marches, he is a marked man for life.

And the other night here in Los Angeles, during an amiable discussion, a Negro attorney suddenly said, "I never yet met a white policeman whose word I could trust." This blanket indictment came not, mind you, from an ignorant black racist.

Nor are whites immune to the contagion. I spoke just a few days ago to a local physician who has a number of colored patients. "I've known them for years," he told me sadly, "and they have always regarded me—as I have them —as a friend. Yet now when I'm called on some emergency to that part of town I find myself apprehensive. I know it isn't logical—but there it is."

NOW NO ONE I know, white or black, Northerner or Southerner, has anything but loathing for the cowardly thugs who beat and killed the Rev. James J. Reeb in Selma.

Yet I would ask in all earnestness — even if my horns are exposed in so doing—"Was this trip really necessary?" Were not the local authorities talking plain common sense when they pleaded the demonstrations could no longer serve any useful purpose and might bring bloodshed? Must no part of the blame, at least, fall on the shoulders of the organizers who dismissed this contemptuously and insisted on "here and now" though no immediate election was in prospect and it was clear that the president and the Congress were determined that every qualified Negro should get his voting rights?

And was the cause really helped when 75 of those picketing Gov. George Wallace demonstrated by rising at a given signal and urinating in the streets?

Murder in Selma; police dogs in the Philadelphia subways to guard against gangs of young Negroes; stabbings in Detroit; muggings in Washington. . . . What price victory?

ALL I CAN THINK of is that bitterly ironic phrase of Bert Leston Taylor, the famous columnist for the Chicago Tribune: "The so-called human race."

20 YEARS AGO

Hamilton Field improvements totaling $190,000 were promised by the War Department in awarding a contract for construction of a passenger terminal, freight house and hangar.

Additions to Mill Valley's contemplated master sewer system were expected to boost its cost to $400,000. Two years ago the estimate was $180,000.

Today is Tuesday, March 23, the 82nd day of 1965 with 283 to follow.

The moon is approaching its last quarter. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Mars, Mercury and Jupiter.

Werhner Von Braun, the rocket scientist, was born on this day in 1912.

On this day in history:

In 1933, the German Reichstag gave Adolf Hitler "blanket powers" for four years.

In 1942, Japenese-Americans were moved from their homes along the Pacific Coast to inland communities as a wartime precaution.

In 1943, the Danes, bravely defying Germans occupying the nation, voted 99 per cent for Democracy and 1 per cent for the New Order of Germany.

A thought for the day-German author Goethe once said: "The sun which two married people owe to one another defies calculation. It is an infinite debt, which can only be discharged through all eternity."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

When Enemy Listens Give Him An Earful Of Bridge

When the people at the next table of a restaurant are listening to your conversation, give them something juicy to listen to.

Pretend you're plotting a mass murder or describe a very gruesome medical operation. You can likewise prepare an earful for your opponents at the bridge table.

Opening lead — ♡ Q

West opens the queen of hearts and continues with the jack, forcing South to ruff. This defense is fine for South since West would defeat the contract by opening the ace of trumps followed by a low trump.

ONE DIAMOND

South would be able to ruff only one diamond in the dummy and would therfore lose one trick in each suit.

South leads out the ace and king of diamonds, ruffs a diamond with dummy's deuce of spades, gets back with the ace of clubs to ruff his last diamond in dummy and then leads the jack of spades. West refuses this trick.

MISSED OPPORTUNITY

Now he leads the king of spades to force out the ace. South can ruff any return and draw the last trump, making his contract.

East missed his chance to give South an earful. When South leads the ace of diamonds, East should drop the 10.

South continues with the king of diamonds and East follows with the four.

TWO DIAMONDS

Convinced that East started with only two diamonds, South ruffs a diamond in dummy with the 10. He gets back with the ace of clubs to ruff his last diamond with dummy's jack of spades.

But now West is sure to get two trump tricks, and the contract is defeated.

Whenever you are defending, remember that declarer is watching your signals. If you have nothing to say to your partner don't miss the chance to say something juicy to your opponent.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one heart, and the next player passes. You hold:

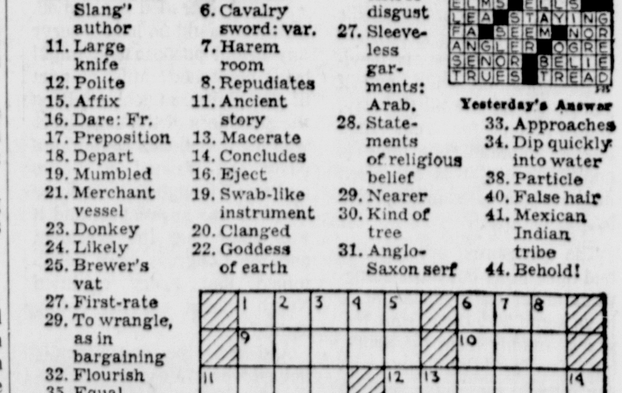

♠ 3
♥ A 10 9 8 3
♦ 10 7 4
♣ Q 10 4 3

Answer: Bid four hearts.

This shows strong trump support (usually of five or more cards), a singleton or void suit, and no more than 9 points in high cards.

When a Family Buys A Home in Northern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest research* shows that 71.9% of home buyers in Northern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of almost 5 to 1 MORE than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	71.9
San Francisco	14.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

When a Family Buys A Home in Southern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest Research* shows that 65.9% of home buyers in Southern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 2 to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	65.9
San Francisco	31.9

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this ordinance is to assure the minimum health, safety and welfare of the people of the County of Marin in connection with the land division not regulated by the Subdivision Ordinance of the County of Marin, by providing adequate design, improvement and circulation for streets, by assuring adequate design of lots to provide reasonable building sites consistent with terrain, preservation of vegetation, community compatibility, and by promoting an integrated land pattern by assuring adequate utility services, adequate provision for storm drainage, and assuring compliance with all pertinent ordinances and regulations relating to land development.

SECTION 2. DEFINITIONS

The following definitions are adopted for the purposes of this ordinance. Terms not herein defined shall be as defined in the Zoning Ordinance of the County of Marin or Subdivision Map Act of the State of California.

SECTION 2.1 LAND DIVISION

"Land Division", as used herein shall mean any land under one ownership, which is divided for the purpose of sale or lease or any other purpose, whether immediate or future, into two or three lots or parcels; EXCEPT:

(a) the division by sale or lease of land according to a subdivision map recorded subsequent to September 2, 1938.

(b) adjustment of a boundary line, or transfer of land between two adjacent property owners or adjacent recorded subdivision lots, which does not result in creation of any additional building sites.

(c) the leasing of land for vehicle parking areas.

(d) the conveyance or transfer of land or any interest therein to any public agency or public utility, or the creation of lots or parcels resulting from such conveyance.

(e) the division of land into lots or parcels, each having an area not less than 10 acres.

(f) the creation of any undescribed parcel by erection of a dwelling appurtenant to a bona fide agricultural enterprise.

SECTION 3. PRELIMINARY MAP

Every person, prior to effecting a land division, shall file eight (8) copies of a Preliminary Map thereof with the Planning Director. Said map shall contain such information and comply with such standards, as may be required by the Planning Director.

SECTION 3.1 FILING FEE

A filing fee of Twenty Dollars ($20.00) shall be paid at the time the Preliminary Map is filed.

SECTION 3.2 RECEIPT

Upon acceptance of the Preliminary Map by the Planning Director, a receipt shall be issued for the map and filing fee. Such acceptance shall not preclude the securing of additional information from the subdivider, which, in the opinion of the Planning Director, is necessary for the proper consideration of the Preliminary Map, nor does it insure that the map complies with applicable law, and/or ordinance.

SECTION 3.3 ACTION ON MAP

(a) The Planning Director shall promptly refer copies of the Preliminary Map to the Department of Public Works and other interested departments, appropriate public agencies, and/or special districts. These agencies shall, within seven (7) working days, after the date of mailing, return their recommendations and report, in writing, to the Planning Director.

(b) Within ten (10) working days after filing of the Preliminary Map, unless such time is extended by agreement with the subdivider or his agent, the Planning Director shall consider said map, together with the reports of the Department of Public Works and appropriate agencies, and shall approve, conditionally approve, or disapprove the same. Failure of the Planning Director to act within said time shall be deemed unconditional approval.

SECTION 4. CONDITIONS OF APPROVAL

The Planning Director as a condition of approval of the Preliminary Map may require dedication of easements or construction of improvements, including, but not limited to, the following:

(a) IMPROVEMENTS

1. Widening or extension of streets.
2. Culverts and flood control facilities.
3. Curbs and gutters.
4. Fire hydrants.
5. Sidewalks.
6. Retaining Walls.

(b) DEDICATION or RESERVATION

1. Easements for public or private roads.
2. Easements for drainage, access to other areas, or public utilities.
3. Reserved strips limiting access to public ways.

SECTION 4.1 SEWAGE DISPOSAL

The Planning Director may require information relative to waste disposal, and may disapprove all or a portion of any Land Division where, in the opinion of the Marin County Health Department, adequate provision for waste disposal is necessary and cannot be made, provided, however, that approval of a Preliminary Map hereunder shall not constitute exemption from the provisions of Marin County Ordinance No. 1244 and appurtenant Rules and Regulations.

SECTION 4.2 MASTER PLAN

In all respects, the Land Division shall be considered by the Planning Director in relation to any Master or General Plan adopted by the County of Marin, or to any preliminary plans made in anticipation thereof.

SECTION 4.3 IMPROVEMENT PLANS

The construction of any improvements which may be required by the Planning Director, pursuant to Section 4, shall be accomplished in accordance with improvement plans, approved in advance, by the Director of Public Works. The Director of Public Works shall rule upon the acceptability of any improvement plans within 10 days after submission thereof, or such plans shall be deemed to have been approved.

Accompanying such improvement plans shall be such engineering data and computations as are necessary to check the adequacy of the required improvements.

SECTION 4.4 INSPECTION

(a) General

The director of Public Works shall make such inspections as he deems necessary to ensure that all construction required is in accordance with the approved improvement plans.

(b) Fee

All inspection services shall be paid for by the subdivider at the actual cost to the County of Marin of such inspection.

(c) Notification

The subdivider shall notify the Department of Public Works upon completion of each stage of construction, and he shall not proceed with further construction until he has received authorization from the Director of Public Works. Such inspections shall be made not later than the next full working day following said notification, and if not so made, they shall be thereafter deemed to have been made, and approved.

SECTION 4.5 IMPROVEMENT BOND

(a) If the improvement work required under Section 4 of this Ordinance is not completed satisfactorily before final approval of the Land Division, the owner or owners of the Land Division shall, concurrently with the approval of the Land Division, enter into an agreement with the Board of Supervisors, agreeing to have the work completed within the time specified in said agreement. Said agreement may provide for the improvements to be installed in units, or for extensions of time under specific conditions. Such agreement shall be secured by a good and sufficient bond or cash deposit, which bond or cash deposit shall be an amount to cover the estimated cost of improvements.

(b) In the event the improvements are not completed prior to final approval of the Land Division, then the improvement bond or cash deposit shall include an amount to cover the estimated cost of inspection.

SECTION 5. APPLICATION FOR FINAL APPROVAL

Within one (1) year after the approval or conditional approval of the Preliminary Map, or within such further extension of time as is granted pursuant to Section 5.2 herein, application for Final Approval may be made as follows:

(a) If any offer of dedication or reservation, for any purpose, has been required as a condition of approval of a Preliminary Map, the subdivider shall file with the Director of Public Works such documents as may be necessary to effect the dedication or reservation.

(b) The subdivider shall cause to be recorded, in the manner provided by law, a Record of Survey Map prepared pursuant to Article 5, Chapter 15, Division 3 of the Business and Professions Code of the State of California, or a metes and bounds description and plat thereof, drawn to scale, either of which has been previously certified by the Planning Director to be in conformity with the approved Preliminary Map. Such Record of Survey map or metes and bounds description and plat shall show any easements established pursuant to sub-section (a), above.

SECTION 5.1 BUILDING PERMITS

No building permit for construction on any lot in a Land Division shall be issued unless and until final approval of the Division is granted as prescribed in Section 5 herein, or waived, and the building site is in conformity therewith, including adequate provision for water supply and sewage disposal. No certificate of Occupancy or final building inspection shall be issued or made until all required improvements are satisfactorily installed and completed, or have been assured pursuant to this Ordinance.

SECTION 5.2 TIME LIMIT ON APPROVAL

If the subdivider has not applied for final approval of a Land Division within one (1) year after the date of approval of the Preliminary Map, the Land Division application shall be void and reapplication shall be necessary. If applied for within such one-year period, one extension of not more than one (1) year may be granted by the Planning Director.

In the event that the proceedings are abandoned or final approval is not applied for or received, as provided herein, the full filing fee collected by the County of Marin upon the filing of the Preliminary Map shall be considered earned, and retained by the County.

SECTION 6. APPEAL

In the event that any person wishes to appeal any action or decision made in connection with the administration of this Ordinance, of the Planning Director and/or the Director of Public Works, such person may, within seven (7) days of said action or decision, appeal in writing to the Planning Commission. The Planning Commission shall hear said appeal within fifteen (15) days after filing and shall render a decision thereon within fifteen (15) days after said hearing.

If any party to the appeal to the Planning Commission is dissatisfied with the ruling thereof, said ruling may be appealed to the Board of Supervisors in writing within seven (7) days after the rendition of a decision by the Planning Commission. The Board of Supervisors shall hear said appeal within fifteen (15) days after filing and shall render a decision within ten (10) days after said hearing. The decision of the Board of Supervisors shall be final.

SECTION 7. VALIDITY

If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional by the decision of any Court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of the Ordinance. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, hereby declares that it would have passed this ordinance and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, clauses or phrases be declared invalid or unconstitutional.

SECTION 8. SHORT TITLE

This ordinance may be referred to as the "Land Division Ordinance of the County of Marin."

SECTION 9. PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION

It is unlawful for any person to sell or otherwise to make any Land Division or any part thereof, until final approval of such division is granted in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance.

Any division of land contrary to the provisions of this ordinance shall be a misdemeanor, and any person, firm, corporation, partnership, or co-partnership upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by a fine of not less than Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) and not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or by imprisonment in the County Jail for a period of not more than six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to bar any legal, equitable, or summary remedy to which the County of Marin or any other political subdivision or person, firm, corporation, or partnership may otherwise be entitled, and the County of Marin or any other political subdivision or person, firm, corporation, partnership, or co-partnership may file a suit in the Superior Court of the County of Marin to restrain or enjoin any attempted or proposed division or sale in violation of this Ordinance.

Any building or structure erected or constructed in violation of this Ordinance shall be and is hereby declared unlawful and a public nuisance and the District Attorney of the County of Marin shall institute necessary legal proceedings for the abatement, removal or enjoinment thereof in the manner provided by law.

SECTION 10. REPEAL

Marin County Ordinance No. 1392 is hereby repealed, and all other ordinances and parts of ordinances of the County of Marin in conflict with this Ordinance, to the extent of such conflict and no further, are hereby repealed, however, such repeal shall not affect any agreement, contract, or bond executed pursuant to such ordinances or any right of action accruing thereunder.

SECTION 11. EXCEPTIONS

The Planning Commission may grant, upon the making of findings as provided in Section VIII of Marin County Ordinance No. 640, the Subdivision Ordinance, exception to any of the requirements or regulations set forth in this Ordinance.

SECTION 12. EFFECTIVE DATE

This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force thirty (30) days after the date of passage and approval and shall be published in the Independent-Journal, a newspaper of general circulation published in the County of Marin, before the expiration of fifteen (15) days after its passage, with the names of the members voting for and against the same.

NOTICE OF IMPROVEMENT
SAN RAFAEL CAYES

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 15th day of March, 1965, the City Council of the City of San Rafael, California, adopted its Resolution of Intention No. 3204, wherein it did declare that in its opinion the public interest and convenience required, and that it was the intention of said Council to order the acquisition of the improvements in and for said City as hereinafter described.

All of said work and improvements have been constructed at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes, dimensions and materials, and at the lines, grades and elevations shown and delineated on the plans, profiles and specifications preliminarily approved therefor by the City Council of said City and on file for public inspection in the office of the City Clerk.

Notice is hereby given of the fact that in many cases said work and improvement has brought the finished surface of the ground to a grade different from that formerly existing, and that to said extent said grades are hereby changed and that said work has been done to said changed grades.

The descriptions of the improvements to be acquired and the termini of the work contained in the Resolution of Intention are general in nature. All items of work do not necessarily extend for the full length of the description thereof. The plans and profiles of the work and maps and descriptions, as contained in the Engineer's report, shall be controlling as to the correct and detailed description thereof.

Reference is hereby made to proceedings had pursuant to Division 4 of the Streets and Highways Code, on file in the office of the City Clerk.

The improvements to be acquired are more particularly described as follows:

(a) The reclamation of the lands within the proposed assessment district as described in Section 14 hereof, with a levee and embankment along the northerly, easterly and southerly boundaries of the properties thereof, consisting of mud fill and rip-rap, together with appurtenant drainage structures, and mud dike within the area outside of San Rafael Cayes Unit 1 to form a drainage lagoon.

(b) Mud and sand street fill under East Canal Street from its present easterly terminus southeasterly to the easterly boundary of San Rafael Cayes, Unit 1, Catalina Boulevard from Canal Street to the southerly boundary of San Rafael Cayes, Unit 1, Newport Boulevard from Canal Street to the northerly boundary of San Rafael Cayes, Unit 1, and Newport Way for its entire length.

(c) Grading, base pavement and wearing surface, curbs, gutters, sidewalks; sanitary sewer mains, manholes, wye branches, laterals, cleanouts and appurtenances; storm drain pipes, protection grates, inlet structures, manholes, catch basins, end sections, and appurtenances; rights of service and use in water mains, valves, hydrants, services and appurtenances; street signs, street monuments, street barricades, street electroliers; rights of service and use in underground electrical and telephone facilities in all of said streets and in public easements within said Tract; a storm water pump station; a sanitary sewage pumping station and force main to the sewage treatment plant of the San Rafael Sanitation District; a sewage ejector station; and access roads.

(d) The acquisition of rights and service and the construction of all improvements auxiliary to any of the above and necessary to complete the same.

Said contemplated acquisitions, in the opinion of said Council, are of more than local or ordinary public benefit; and the costs and expenses thereof are made chargeable upon an assessment district, the exterior boundaries of which are delineated on a map thereof entitled "Assessment Diagram, San Rafael Cayes Improvement District No. One", on file in the office of the City Clerk, which indicates by a boundary line the extent of the territory included in the proposed district and shall govern for all details as to the extent of the assessment district.

Notice is hereby given that serial bonds to represent unpaid assessments and bear interest at the rate of not to exceed 6% per annum, will be issued hereunder in the manner provided by Division 7 of the Streets and Highways Code, the Improvement Act of 1911, and the last installment of such bonds shall mature not to exceed fourteen (14) years from the second day of January next succeeding the next September 1st following their date. Said bonds shall be made payable to bearer and provide a premium of 5% of the unmatured principal thereof on call.

Except as herein otherwise provided for the issuance of bonds, all of said acquisitions shall be done pursuant to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913.

Notice is further given that the Engineer of Work, pursuant to said Act and said Resolution of Intention adopted pursuant thereto, did, on the 15th day of March, 1965, file with the City Clerk his report in writing on said acquisitions, consisting of description of work, plans, estimate of costs and incidental expenses, diagram and assessment, and maps and descriptions, and said Council did on said date consider and examine said report and by resolution preliminarily approved and confirmed same and ordered that said report stand as the report for the purpose of all subsequent proceedings had pursuant to said Resolution of Intention.

The estimated cost of said project is $848,954.00.

Notice is further given that the City Council proposes to enter into agreements with Pacific Gas and Electric Company and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, which agreements will provide, among other things, for the supplying by the public utilities of plans and specifications for the proposed electrical distribution and telephone distribution facilities, for the performance of the work by said utilities of installing said electrical and telephone distribution systems, for the posting of labor, material and performance bonds by said utilities in connection with the performance of said work, for the ownership upon their completion of said electrical and telephone distribution facilities by said utilities, and for the providing of service to applicants therefor in said assessment district in accordance with the rates, rules and regulations now or hereafter established by the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California, and that said agreements shall become effective after proceedings have been taken for the levy of the assessments and sale of bonds and funds are available to carry out their terms.

Notice is further given that the Council proposes to assess the expenses of maintaining and operating the levee, dike, lagoon and all appurtenances, including the cost of necessary repairs, replacements, fuel, power, electric current, care, supervision and any and all other items necessary for the proper maintenance and operation thereof, wholly upon the real property within the proposed assessment district, and to order the formation of the San Rafael Cayes Drainage Maintenance District.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Monday, the 19th day of April, 1965, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P. M., in the regular meeting place of said Council, Council Chambers, City Hall, San Rafael, California, are the time and place appointed and fixed by said Council when and where it will consider and finally act upon the Engineer's report filed pursuant to said Resolution of Intention, and when and where it will hear all protests in relation to said proposed acquisitions, or to the grades at which said work has been done, or the extent of the assessment district, or to the proposed diagram and assessment, or to the maps and descriptions, or to the agreements proposed to be entered into by the City with the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, or to the Engineer's estimate of the costs and expenses thereof, or to the formation of the proposed drainage maintenance district, and that any person interested may file a written protest with the City Clerk at or before the time set for the hearing referred to herein.

Reference is hereby made to said Resolution of Intention and report, including plans, description of work, estimate of costs and incidental expenses, diagram and assessment, and maps and descriptions, for a more particular description of said acquisitions to be had and done, and for further particulars, all on file in the office of the City Clerk.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Every Child Under 15 Years Should Have Measles Vaccine

VAN DELLEN

So many have survived measles that the disease is taken for granted. The condition can be serious in that one in six victims suffer complications, including pneumonia and middle ear infections. It is a cause of death especially among infants in the first three years of life.

The regular cycle for measles begins in the fall and hits its peak in March or April. Epidemics occur every two or three years because a new crop of susceptible children are on the scene. The new vaccine should alter this, provided it is accepted by physicians and parents. One of the vaccines is made from killed measles virus. It stimulates the body to manufacture antibodies resulting in temporary immunity.

THE OTHER vaccine is made from a live but weakened virus that often produces a mild attack of measles from which the child develops everlasting exemption.

Some physicians use both vaccines. The first is given to stimulate protective antibodies and to pave the way for the second vaccine, given months later. There is less fever and discomfort when the live vaccine is used this way. An alternate plan is to give the protective blood serum, gamma globulin, along with the live vaccine.

A ONE-SHOT measles vaccine, capable of providing immunity with minimum reactions is making its debut. Meanwhile, all children under age 15 should be vaccinated. Some physicians give the killed virus by seven months of age, along with diphtheria, whooping cough, and tetanus immunization. This protects the child for nine months to a year, when the second (live) vaccine is given.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

Peculiar Problem In Novato Schools

Unification of the old Novato Unified and the San Jose school districts into the "new" Novato Unified School District late last year saddled the new district with a peculiar problem even before it got started.

Although the voters approved the school district meger, they narrowly missed approving the new district's assumption of the bonded indebtedness of the two parent districts.

As a result Novato unified district voters will face three financing issues on their ballot in the April 20 election:

1. Whether the old San Jose bond debt of $567,000 and the old Novato bond debt of $2,698,000 should be "levelled," as assumed by the whole new district. A two-thirds "yes" vote is required.

2. Whether the new district should issue $3,840,000 in new bonds, to make it eligible for a state loan, and

3. Whether the district should borrow $7,680,000 from the state —possible only if the first two proposals are approved.

The goal of all this, Supt. James G. Bunker explained, is "to build schools—this is a growing community!"

District officials estimate that the Novato area's student population boom will continue so strongly that $11,520,000 will have to be spent within five years to provide classrooms for all the pupils.

As things now stand, Bunker explained, the new district has no bonded indebtedness whatsoever—and hence is ineligible for any state building loans. District taxpayers would have to approve a bond issue of some seven million dollars—and still be saddled with the old districts' debts—to make the new district eligible for state loans—unless they approve the "leveling."

"In order to keep the taxpayers from being hit on the head," Bunker said, "we want the new district to assume the old bond issues. This would then qualify us for a state loan with a much lower new bond issue than otherwise."

"Leveling" of the old districts' bond issues and passage of the proposed new issue will not mean any increase in taxes, the district official claimed. State law sets a maximum allowable tax rate for repayment of school bonds; under the formula, residents of both old districts which make up the new district already were paying the maximum.

However, Bunker stressed, the new district must assume the old districts' bonded indebtedness or the taxpayers may be faced with paying off two separate districts' bonds at the same time, each possibly at the state maximum rate.

Where will the district spend the proposed $11,520,000?

By September, 1966, the district hopes to have ready for use at least 56 more classrooms than it now has. These include three complete new schools of 12 classrooms and two kindergartens each, plus additions to existing schools.

By September, 1968, the district thinks it will need more than 50 additional classrooms—plus a San Marin high school for 1,000 students and Sinaloa Junior High for at least 900.

District experts predict that the present total enrollment of 9,400 will jump to more than 13,000 within five years.

STEPPIN' OUT—Will (Peter Esherick) teaches the "latest Kansas City dance" to Aunt Eller (Pamela Myers) in Redwood High School's production of "Oklahoma!" to be presented Friday and Saturday at the school in Larkspur. (Redwood High School photo)

Mississippi Woman Aids High School's 'Oklahoma'

A large cast of Redwood High School students and a "little old lady" from Pope, Miss. have made it possible for "Oklahoma!" to be given in the Redwood Little Theater Friday and Saturday.

The curtain will rise at 8 p.m. for both performances.

Director Joseph Wadlington explained that the colorful sunbonnets to be used in the production were handmade by a woman he met last summer on a southern trip. They are an integral part of the costumes for "Oklahoma!," which both Wadlington and Arthur Wigell, musical director, promise to be "the biggest and best musical ever produced at Redwood."

Senior Don Carroll of Larkspur will play Curly, a lovesick cowboy. Laurie, Curly's girl friend, has been double cast, with the role to be shared by senior Donna Phares of Corte Madera and sophomore Cindy Greaves of Kentfield.

The supporting cast is composed of Pam Meyers as Aunt Eller, Pike Oliver as Ike Skidmore, Pete Esherick as Will Parker, Mike Knight as Jud Fry, Josette Sommers and Renee Ottesen as Ado Annie Carnes Ted Herrmann as Ali Hakim, and Phyllis Guy as Gertie Cummings. Jim French and Clay Roni play Andrew Carnes, and Arie Van Den Aker is Cord Elam.

Other cast members include John Bamberger, Hampton Lyons, Bob Borgman, Bob Ruggeri, Steve Le Beck, Lee Faulkner, Sandi Allamn, and Nancy Norton, plus a large cast of dancers.

A small theater orchestra will play.

According to musical director Arthur Wigell, because of the popularity of the production, tickets will not be available at the door. They may be obtained in advance from the Associated Students of Redwood High School.

TELEVISION REVIEW

Reading Sometimes Better Than Seeing

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — My daily personal relationship with television has reached a perhaps catastrophic point: I would rather read about the medium than watch it. To tell the truth, I would rather not read about it either, but it has become fashionable in our household lately to dine thrice each 24 hours, so there you are.

The reading, however, does have its provocative moments. Thus, for instance, in the Saturday Evening Post, one finds the retiring GOP National Committee chairman, Dean Burch, proposing a series of eight, weekly, one-hour network television programs for the presidential candidates in 1968. This, he suggests, would "circumvent the outlandish costs, senseless hurly-burly and the torrent of trivia" of the 1964 campaign. Burch blames both parties, suggests they share the costs of his 1968 plan and recommends that:

"As a condition of accepting the nomination of a political party, a candidate should agree, not by force of law but by force of reason and public opinion, to participate in these television presentations."

On four of the telecasts, says Burch, there should be equal sections giving both candidates a chance to talk about a predetermined subject. The other four hours, he says, should be flexible in format. Burch admired the idea of the 1960 Kennedy-Nixon debates: "Those broadcasts caused more Americans to look and to listen for themselves than ever before or since in a presidential race."

Television and politics also came in for comment in last month's McCall's magazine in a marvelous article by a renowned speech teacher, Maxeda von Hesse (as told to Helen Markel); and if you didn't see it I suggest it is a worthy investment to send for it by mail if you have any possible public speaking in your future. Miss Von Hesse, who has coached many famous and influential persons, writes:

"Gov. William Scranton had a hard-hitting, vital message, but he delivered it with such boyish naivete — his eyebrows raised in halfmoons of surprise, his jaw lowered squarely on his larynx to produce a double chin —that he appeared to be an aging boy scout locked in a death struggle with Goliath. Barry Goldwater, whether you agree with him or not, projects a warmth and believability that force even a hostile audience to hear him out."

Of Richard Nixon on television in the 1960 debates, she says: "I agree that Nixon was handicapped by bad makeup and faulty lighting. But I believe that what finally beat him was the fact that John F. Kennedy spoke directly, succinctly, effectively, while Nixon engaged in long-winded academic debate.

Architect's Fees On List At Hospital

An unsolved dispute over final payments of architect's fees on the Babcock Wing of Marin General Hospital will be raised for discussion at tonight's meeting of the Marin Hospital District board.

The board will meet in the hospital cafeteria for dinner at 6 p.m. and move to the conference room for the formal meeting at 7 p.m.

Not on the agenda, but expected to come up for discussion, perhaps in closed session, is the suit by Dr. Stanford W. Ascherman against the hospital charging violation of the Ralph M. Brown Act.

Ascherman has charged the district board met illegally in private to discuss whether he should be granted staff privileges. The hospital district filed a demurrer in Marin County Superior Court yesterday.

Pupils To Teach Just For A Day

The shoe will be on the other foot at Terra Linda High School May 14.

That is the day when seniors can take on teaching jobs just to see what it is like. Seniors may apply for many chores at the school, including the principal's job, secretarial work and janitor's chores.

The teaching seniors will have a class for one period. Needless to say, all applications must be approved before the student takes over the class. The teacher will be on hand to help if necessary.
